

Alejandra Fanith earned a bachelor's degree in Linguistics from UTEP in 2021. Years later, she decided to come back and pursue a master's degree in Speech-Language Pathology, where she currently works as a graduate research assistant. When Alejandra is not in school, she volunteers as a swim coach for individuals with special needs and participates in other community projects in her church.