Tasha Hopper is the chief executive officer at The Hospitals of Providence (THOP) Transmountain Campus. This facility is Tenet Healthcare's first teaching hospital.

Hopper served as COO at THOP Transmountain Campus. Prior to coming to the Transmountain Campus, she served as COO and assistant chief nursing officer at the THOP Memorial Campus.

Hopper is a fellow of the American College of Healthcare Executives (ACHE) and a certified nurse with over 20 years of experience. She received both her Bachelor of Nursing and Master of Science in Nursing Administration degrees from The University of Texas at El Paso.