

Department of English English Education Program

TE<sub>x</sub>ES: Texas Examinations of Educator Standards Test Preparation Workshop for ELAR and PPR

- English Language Arts and Reading, 7–12 (Series 231)
- Pedagogy and Professional Responsibilities, EC–12 (Series 160)

Teacher Candidates: Join us and prepare for the TExES with English Education Program faculty.

The Texas Examinations of Educator Standards (TExES™) preparation workshop is to provide content overview of the English Language Arts and Reading (ELAR), Grades 7–12 (Series 231) and Pedagogy and Professional Responsibilities (PPR), Grades EC–12 (Series 160).

We will review and practice the following:

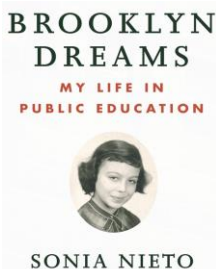

1. Structure of the two exams with learner-centered approaches and educator ethics;
2. Strategies for answering the multiple-choice questions with sound reasoning; and
3. Model writing for the two ELAR essays with the scoring rubric to earn full credit.

Overall, participants will gain strategies for responding to test questions about the domains, competencies, and standards in English language arts and reading education. Join us!

Friday, September 22nd, 2017

1:15 PM – 2:30 PM

Hudspeth Hall (HUDS), Second Floor, Room 200

“Education has been my defining moment, my mission, my goal, and my odyssey.”

—Sonia Nieto, educator and researcher (2015, p. 4)

Visit www.utep.edu/english. Click on the TExES Test tab.

If you have any questions, please contact: rjrodriguez6@utep.edu.