

	YOUR CLASS SCHEDULE	ACADEMIC ADVISING	ENRICHING EXPERIENCES	LIFELONG SUCCESS
FRESHMAN	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Review core requirements. Take core courses, focusing on classes that will enhance your verbal and analytical skills, such as RWS 1301 and 1302. Examine the options for your core Math requirement. Take MATH 1319, 1320, 1409, or 1508 in order to unlock future courses. Take SOCI 1301 to determine if sociology is the right major for you. 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Meet with your Academic Advising Center advisor before registration. Visit the Academic Advising Center for a language placement exam. 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Ask your advisor about joining a learning community. Explore student organizations such as The Sociology Club. Engage with your field by attending lectures hosted by the Department of Sociology and Anthropology. 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Discover tutoring resources, such as the University Writing Center and the Math Resource Center for Students. Cultivate healthy lifestyle habits by visiting the Student Recreation Center. Submit a Free Application for Federal Student Aid (FAFSA). Visit the University Career Center and begin developing your resume or CV.
SOPHOMORE	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Take SOCI 2312 and SOCI 3000-4000 electives. Begin taking courses for your language requirement. 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Meet with your Academic Advising Center advisor before registration. Ask your advisor about the benefits of Study Abroad courses. Discuss minor options with your advisor. Reach out to the LSPI if you are considering law school. 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Discover community engagement opportunities in your field through the Center for Civic Engagement. Continue to engage with The Sociology Club, and explore other student organizations. Explore the world with a Study Abroad course. Engage with your field by attending lectures hosted by the Department of Sociology and Anthropology. 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Network at employer recruitment activities with JobMine. Join the Liberal Arts Honors Program. Represent your College through the Liberal Arts Ambassadors Program. Identify scholarship opportunities through the Office of Scholarships.
JUNIOR	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Take SOCI 3311 and SOCI 3000-4000 electives. Complete your language requirements. Select a minor or double major that complements your interests within sociology. 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Schedule an appointment early to meet with your advisor in the Department of Sociology and Anthropology. Ask your advisor about postsecondary opportunities, such as graduate school in sociology or other professional postsecondary options like law school. Reach out to the LSPI if you are considering law school. Visit the College of Liberal Arts Student Success Center once you reach 90 hours for a review of your degree plan. 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Cultivate Leadership opportunities in The Sociology Club. Consider submitting papers to student or professional conferences as advised by your faculty mentors. Build on your community-engagement efforts by participating in Project MOVE. 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Identify a faculty mentor for guidance on research opportunities, postsecondary options, and in anticipation of securing a letter of recommendation for graduate and professional applications. Investigate opportunities for graduate or professional study. Research your direction in life, and determine whether you will pursue graduate work, private employment, or other postsecondary opportunities. Research relevant exams for graduate or professional study, such as the GRE, LSAT, GMAT, or MCAT.
SENIOR	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Take SOCI 4301 and SOCI 3000-4000 electives. Complete minor or double major requirements. 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Schedule an appointment early to meet with your advisor in the Department of Sociology and Anthropology. Review your graduation audit with the Graduation Director. 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Expand your leadership efforts with The Sociology Club. Consider submitting papers to student or professional conferences as advised by your faculty mentors. Engage with your field by attending lectures hosted by the Department of Sociology and Anthropology. 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Register early to take exams before or during the first semester of your Senior year. Provide yourself with time to retake exams if needed. Work closely with your faculty mentor to prepare applications at the beginning of your Senior year. Explore job fairs and pursue career opportunities. Refine your resume or CV with a Career Education Workshop. Join the UTEP Alumni Association.

UPDATED 08/17/2018

EDGE ADVANTAGES | UTEP students will graduate with these skills:

- Leadership
- Problem-solving
- Communication
- Entrepreneurship
- Social Responsibility
- Confidence
- Global Awareness
- Teamwork
- Critical Thinking