Taking part is your civic duty.

It's about representation. Fair.

It's about redistricting. It's about those districts in their states to account for congressional and state legislative districts. After each decennial census, state legislatures must reenumerate the boundaries of the districts in their states.

It's about the Constitution. The U.S. Constitution mandates a census every 10 years. The first census was in 1790. The Constitution mandates that everyone in the county be counted once, in the U.S. once, and in the right place only once, and in the right place, only once. Everyone counts.

The 2020 Census is closer than you think.

Here's a quick refresher of what it is and why it's essential that everyone is counted.
