The Cue: Community University Engagement

What is The Cue?

The CUE is a revolutionary website created to facilitate connections between universities and their community's non-profit organizations.

What does it do?

- Displays various volunteering and internship options.
- Offers service opportunities that may range from a day-long event to an on-going commitment.
- Allows students to sign up for said opportunities and track their volunteering or Service-Learning hours.

UTEP's Project Move, an annual day of community service, is processed through The Cue.
