• Data on student outcomes, if available (e.g., equitable course performance across different groups of students, progression of diverse groups of students to the next course in the sequence) |

Teaching Awards Selection Committee
• Award recipients are chosen by representative 3-member committee
• Committee comprised of volunteers with the goal of 1 student from within CHS and 2 UTEP faculty.
• Members assess applications using a whole person holistic approach and a pre-established rubric based on a variety of criteria
• Applications are numbered and have faculty member names redacted to enhance anonymity.
• Committee members may recuse themselves from reviewing an application if they feel bias may impact their scoring. In this event, the applicant score will be the average of two rather than three scores.
• Members comprising this committee are maintained internally by the Honors and Awards Committee and not published externally.
