

Judge Bill Moody is currently the presiding judge for the 34th District Court in El Paso County. He was appointed to the court in 1986 by then Texas Governor Mark White. At the age of 36, he was one of the youngest judges ever appointed to the bench. Judge Moody's 34-year tenure makes him only the third El Pasoan to serve for over 30 years in elected service. He has devoted his life to serving his country and his community.

One of Judge Moody's finest endeavors is to support Maggie, his wife, in supporting GiGi's Playhouse, an organization the Moody family established to offer educational, therapeutic and career development programs for children and adults with Down syndrome. It further demonstrates how dedicated Moody is to the community and all of its citizens. No undertaking is too great for him in order to ensure that everyone is represented.

Judge William "Bill" Edward Moody's service to others has established him as a great humanitarian, El Pasoan, and Miner.
