

Paul Dipp is an El Paso native who graduated from UTEP with a Bachelor of Business Administration, double majoring in real estate and management. Dipp, a third-generation grocer, has served as president of Economy Wholesale Grocers since 1996. He is also a partner in Plaza Properties, an asset management firm formed in 1973. Dipp has actively served in the Young Presidents Organization, St. Jude's Children Research Hospital - El Paso Chapter, Sacred Heart Parish Strategic Planning Committee, The Institute of Real Estate Management, the College of Business Administration Advisory Board, and the UTEP Centennial Committee. In 2019, he was honored with the UTEP Gold Nugget Award from the College of Business Administration.