

Patrick Anthony Cereceres

E-mail: patrick.cereceres@utexas.edu § Phone: (915) 490-1181
P.O. Box 1581, Canutillo, Texas 79835, United States

OBJECTIVE

Seeking admission to the PhD in Interdisciplinary Health Sciences graduate program in the College of Health Sciences at the University of Texas at El Paso.

WORK EXPERIENCE

Tier 1 Physical Therapy and Sports Medicine

April 2014 — Present

Physical Therapy Technician

- Duties
 - Assist the head therapist or therapy assistant in leading patients through prescribed rehabilitation exercises and movements
 - Maintain a courteous and professional manner when interacting with patients and their families
 - Keeping the rehabilitation area/gym clear of obstacles and debris that may interfere with the patients rehabilitation schedule
 - Leading patients in aquatic therapy along with operating aquatic rehabilitation treadmills
- Other duties
 - Cleaning and maintaining the therapy pool so it is safe for patients to complete their rehabilitation exercises

University of Texas - El Paso

August 2014 — December 2016

Graduate Teaching Assistant

- Duties are to teach the laboratory section of the Exercise Physiology course under the direction of Dr. George King
- Other duties include:
 - Departmental assistance
 - Participation in department related activities, fundraisers, etc.

EDUCATION

MS in Kinesiology

August 2014 — December 2016

University of Texas, El Paso

- GPA: 3.91
- Worked as a Graduate Research Assistant at the Stanley E. Fulton Biomechanics and Motor Behavior Laboratory
- Completed thesis work in this lab

BS in Kinesiology - Exercise Science

August 2009 — August 2013

- Obtained the BS degree with above a 3.0 GPA
- Member of the Kinesiology Club
- President of Phi Kappa Theta Fraternity, Texas Alpha Pi Chapter
 - January 2012-December 2012

QUALIFICATIONS

- Bachelor of Science in Kinesiology - Exercise Science from the College of Education, University of Texas, Austin
- Master's in Kinesiology from the College of Health Sciences, University of Texas, El Paso
- Completed Thesis titled: TREADMILL-BASED PERTURBATION TRAINING FOR PREVENTING FALLS AMONG YOUNG ADULTS
- 2.5 year's work experience as a Graduate student Teaching assistant
- 2.5 year's work experience as a PT technician at Tier 1 Physical Therapy and Sports Medicine

INTERESTS

Physical Therapy with a specification in Neuromuscular Rehabilitation; Studies regarding fall prevention among the elderly and those with diseases that compromise stability during gait; Health along the United States-Mexican border; Sports Medicine; Sports Psychology; Motor learning, development, and behavior among all populations.

REFERENCES

George King, PhD, Chair, Department of Kinesiology, UTEP
gking@utep.edu
(915) 747-7284

Feng Yang, PhD, Assistant Professor, UTEP
(915) 747-8228
fyang@utep.edu

Sandor Dorgo, PhD, Assistant Professor, UTEP
(915) 747-7222
sdorgo@utep.edu

Robert D. Jones PT, DPT
(915) 585-1888

Wesley Benson PT, MPT
(915) 593-8555

Richard Hogeda, MS, Assistant Dean-Student Affairs, College of Education UT Austin
rhogeda@austin.utexas.edu
(512) 741-3223