Areli Guajardo
Transcending Counseling

Areli Guajardo earned her MSW from UTEP in 2015 and has since gained extensive experience as a social worker in the El Paso community. She has worked in various roles, including case manager at a homeless shelter and in medical social work, before transitioning into clinical social work. Currently, Areli is the co-owner of Transcending Counseling, where she and her team offer counseling services to individuals across Texas and New Mexico, specializing in trauma-related disorders.
