Dr. Bertha Verónica Martínez Flores

Coordinadora de la Maestría en Trabajo Social, Instituto de Ciencias Sociales y Administración, Universidad Autónoma de Ciudad Juárez

Dr. Martinez Flores is a professor and researcher at the Universidad Autonoma de Ciudad Juarez. She is assigned to the Social Work program and serves as the coordinator for the master's degree in social work. She holds a Doctorate in Philosophy with a focus on Social Work and Comparative Social Welfare Policies from the Universidad Autonoma de Nuevo Leon. She has a PRODEP profile and is a Level 1 member of the National System of Researchers. With extensive experience in designing development plans and implementing social projects, her research interests include social policy, planning, and participation.