Michele Aboud
Executive Director, Three Oaks Hospice

Michele Diaz Aboud, a native of El Paso and married to Dr. Dwayne Aboud, M.D., mother of Brian Diaz (37 yrs. old), is currently Executive Director for Three Oaks Hospice in El Paso, Texas. She previously served as Regional Vice President for Elara Caring responsible for all hospice operations across Texas. Michele's current position with Three Oaks Hospice includes complete responsibility for all hospice agency duties and functions to include: startup, management and growth of agency; supervision of all patient care and administrative support personnel; securing and retaining Medicare certification; physician, patient and public relations activities; interfacing with support functions of accounting, billing and collections, and information systems; financial performance of the agency; attainment of superior patient services; and leading the agency with the highest of integrity and professionalism. Michele has assisted over 50 physicians in starting their medical practices in the El Paso area and is the only Certified Hospice and Palliative Care Administrator in El Paso (CHPCA) and only one of 9 in the State of Texas.