Ryan E. Jackson, Sr., M.Ed.

Director, UTEP Military Student Success Center

Ryan Jackson Sr. has been a member of UTEP since 2016 in numerous capacities at the Military Student Success Center (MSSC). Ryan currently serves as Director of the Military Student Success Center. He retired from the Armed Forces in 2016, after a 24-year career which has taken him all over the world. Ryan has earned a B.S. in Kinesiology/Biology (Double Major) an M.Ed. in Higher Education Administration and is currently an Ed.D. Candidate in Educational Leadership & Administration at UTEP. Ryan's role as the Director of the MSSC at UTEP is assisting all military affiliated students with eligibility and processing of military educational benefits, providing resources & outreach services at UTEP, El Paso, and the Fort Bliss community. His role is crucial in the success of transitioning servicemembers into civilian life and into higher education.
