SHARE YOUR STORY

What we're looking for

Each Commencement provides UTEP an opportunity to tell a story through the experiences and future plans of a graduate. These stories may be shared with the local media, posted on UTEP’s website and social media channels, and could be considered for the Commencement ceremony. Learn more about how to share your success stories with us by visiting our UTEP Commencement website at www.utep.edu/commencement and clicking on “Share Your Story.”

What we want to know

We seek graduate and undergraduate candidates with inspiring stories from all majors who have excelled academically and taken advantage of opportunities to enhance their learning, such as internships, study abroad, research, leadership and community engagement. We want to know how the University has assisted you on your academic and personal journeys. We are interested in how you may have overcome adversity to achieve your goals and earn your degree. Was there an individual at UTEP who made a significant impact in completing your education? Are you a first-generation college student, or do you come from a long line of Miners? Lastly, please tell us about your future academic and professional plans.

How to share your story

Please share your story or the story of someone you know. Nominations can be submitted by visiting our UTEP Commencement website at www.utep.edu/commencement and completing the “Share Your Story” form.
