GTF WORKSHOP: MAKE-UP OPPORTUNITY

Attention!

If you did not attend a workshop during the Fall 2023 semester, you are currently on probation and at risk of losing your scholarship for the following semester(s). In order to be removed from probation, you must complete one of the following make-up sessions.

Option #1 - Deadline: January 15th

Attend an extra event/lecture offered by UTEP that is of the same educational value as a GTF workshop (event must be at least an hour in length). To receive credit, submit a picture as proof of attendance. You must stay for the entire event. You can register for a session via <https://events.utep.edu> or <https://minetracker.utep.edu/events>.

Suggestion: There are several Career Center Workshops being offered in January which we highly encourage you all to attend. These workshops will focus on career and professional development and how to position yourself for success. If you are interested, you can register here.

Option #2 - Deadline: January 15th

You will have to attend the El Paso Museum of Art. There, you have to take a picture of your three favorite art pieces (you have to be in the picture) and answer the following questions.

- Why did these pieces of art catch my attention?
- What emotions did the art pieces evoke in me upon viewing them?
- What did I learn about the El Paso Museum of Art?
- What is my biggest takeaway from attending the El Paso Museum of Art?
