

Course Rotation for the Counseling Program

Faculty members of the Counseling Program have approved a three year schedule of courses shown in the table below. We hope this schedule will help as you plan to work toward completing your degree. Please be aware the rotation of courses has changed from previously published schedules. The Introduction to School will be taught in the Summer Term while Mental Health Counseling courses will be taught in Spring starting the academic year 2016-2017. The times Human Growth and Development, Group Counseling, and Techniques of Counseling will be taught has also changed from three times a year to twice a year, please see the schedule below. The Marriage and Family sequence is also changed and Cognitive Behavioral Course schedule is changed. Other elective courses may also be developed and put into the schedule. The schedule is also subject to change based on faculty availability and budgetary issues. Also be aware that courses may be cancelled based on enrollment. In addition, specialty courses may be offered as these are developed; most often these will be scheduled in the summer
