MAY IS MENTAL HEALTH AWARENESS MONTH

THIS EXAM SEASON, MAKE SURE TO TAKE CARE OF YOURSELF!

Take regular breaks

Try the Pomodoro method — study for 25 minutes, break for 5. It helps reset your focus and avoid burnout.

Move Your Body

A 10-minute walk, stretching, or yoga can ease stress and boost your mood.

Eat and Sleep Well

Skipping meals or all-nighters might seem productive, but they hurt your memory and focus.

Practice Mindfulness

Try free apps like Headspace, Insight Timer, or Calm for short, guided meditations.

Reach Out for Support

Talk to a friend, a mentor, or use UTEP's mental health resources. (915-747 5000)

Recharging for the Next Chapter

You are almost there! We hope you enjoy a well-earned break after finals—take time to relax, recharge, and get ready for your next adventure!

Wishing you a happy vacation in advance, and do not forget to prioritize your mental health and well-being!
