

REQUEST FOR REASONABLE RELIGIOUS ACCOMMODATION FORM

The University is committed to providing an academic and work environment that is respectful of religious beliefs in accordance with state and federal laws and regulations. This commitment includes embracing religious diversity and cultivating a community of inclusion and respect. Reasonable accommodations will be provided to individuals whose sincerely held religious beliefs conflict with a University policy, procedure, or other academic or employment requirement, unless it is determined that doing so would cause undue hardship to the University. You may find the Religious Accommodation Policy in the University Handbook of Operating Procedures (HOP), Section VI, Chapter 5.
