Growth of 100% online courses at UTEP
2015-2016 vs. 2017-2018

- Number of 100% online courses increased by 23%
- Number of sections for 100% online courses increased by 39%
  (one course can have many sections)

For the same time period, there was

- a 19% increase in number of students enrolled in online courses
- a 31% increase in enrollments in 100% online courses

Support provided by CID
2015-2016 vs. 2017-2018

- Number of new courses developed and the number of online faculty supported overall by CID have remained fairly steady
- However, during the same timeframe
  - the number of online sections supported has increased by almost 40%
  - the number of faculty who participate in the Teaching Online Academy has increased by 110%
  - the number of graduate students participating in the TOA has increased by 543%

Based on Fall 2018 numbers,
- 34% of the total number of students enrolled at UTEP took at least one online class
- 35% of new courses developed by CID are for UTEP Connect fully online programs