SUMMER 2020 COURSE GUIDE
For a complete selection of our Summer 2020 courses, please visit ppp.utep.edu.
Welcome to P3 Kidz on Campus Summer 2020!

P3 Kidz on Campus Summer Camps offer 10 weeks (beginning June 1, 2020) of grade-specific summer camps for kids entering kindergarten through 12th grade. Each week will offer educational, fun, creative, active, and cultural experiences.

P3 Kidz on Campus Camps are limited in size, and spaces are assigned on a first come, first served basis.

Grade-level requirements are assessed in terms of the grade the student will be entering in Fall 2020. Camps are subject to cancellation due to insufficient enrollment.

EXTENDED DAYCARE (ENTERING KINDERGARTEN TO 8TH GRADE)
Extended daycare is ideal for busy parents who need to bring their kids in a little earlier in the morning and/or leave them with us a little later in the afternoon. This option offers supervised activities and fun from 7:30-9 a.m. and 4-5:30 p.m.

Lunch supervision is also available from noon-1 p.m. Lunch will not be provided, children must bring their own lunches.

For extended daycare, the cost is $20 per week (morning and afternoon sessions). If you choose supervised lunch, an additional $10 per week will be charged. Register for these options as you would any other course.
Check out our extended daycare schedule on pages 6-7.

SUPER SATURDAY
ONE-DAY CAMPS

FOR AGES 6-12
(except where otherwise noted)

Young Painters Workshop
(Ages 6-10)
Young artists will use their imaginations as they learn different painting techniques and styles that inspire creativity and foster originality. Campers will be introduced to basic color schemes/harmonies, basic painting techniques like gradient blending, wet on wet, underpainting, and more through art projects and painting exercises.

Want To Be a Veterinarian?
Calling all Jr. Veterinarians! We offer the unique opportunity for kids to practice veterinary skills, interact safely with live animals and gain valuable experience for their future careers. From exotic animals like snakes, frogs, and lizards, to pocket pets like mice, rats and gerbils, we explore how to take proper care of them all. Jr. Vets will experience a fun-filled day of hands-on veterinary activities, including: surgery, bandaging, X-rays, microscopes/parasites, patient exams, and more!

LEGO® Robots (Ages 8-12)
Throughout this course, campers will learn introductory computer science concepts and apply them to different projects. Using a Mindstorm LEGO® robot, campers will create objects such as vehicles, animals, dinosaurs, robots, spaceships, or whatever else they can imagine. Their robot will then be programmed through a phone app to move and perform different tasks depending on its shape and capabilities. This will teach campers basic concepts in programming, math and robotics.

Virtual Reality: Immersive Technologies for Kids (Ages 8-12)
This camp will provide kids with the tools to design their own virtual realms, characters and foundations. Campers will build and modify games that match their distinctive, innovative ideas. This is an excellent camp for young minds fascinated with the world behind gameplay.

Calling fans of Fortnite®! In this camp, students will design their own games using professional 3D game development software, and build levels and assets inspired by popular battle royale games like Fortnite®. They may participate in e-sports league matches against other schools across the country with a chance to have their levels featured in the Black Rocket master build of the game. This course includes cartoonish action and battle sequences. Campers will work in pairs or teams for most of the program and student-created games will be available on a password-protected Black Rocket website to share with friends and family.

Hands-On Activities and Experiments Teach Kids to Be Curious

Science has always helped me understand how the world works around me. I remember thinking how great it would be for younger students to conduct experiments as scientists do in professional labs. When I was asked by P3 to do a biology summer camp for kids, I found the perfect opportunity to do exactly this. It was challenging, but each day we went out to investigate the living world around us and conducted many hands-on activities and experiments. It was amazing to see how kids develop a curiosity about the world around us and are eager to explore that curiosity to answer their questions. Science is all around us after all, and I discovered that teaching kids science also involves teaching them how to think. The great thing about science is students can ask questions and can get answers by conducting fun and exciting experiments.

This is my teaching approach for my courses and camps. Children have a natural curiosity, wondering why the world is the way it is. It is a privilege to work with the kids who attend the P3 camps. I like my classes to be cool science adventures that kids get to go on because it is an opportunity to get them excited about science. I use a hands-on approach, because science is about trial and error and working through a process to reach a conclusion with experiments. I hope they will leave the classes remembering their experience for years to come. Kids who are exposed to science education early are better equipped to go to college and will have more opportunities once they graduate. I personally know that some of my very first P3 science students (who are now in high school) have pursued summer science programs around the country. I am extremely proud and have no doubt they will continue to succeed in life.

I have always had a passion for biology because it explains the complexity of living things, how they interact with each other, and their environment. This is why I am an animal enthusiast. I am a mother to a whole menagerie of animals, from rescued reptiles like geckos, chameleons, and bearded dragons, to furry friends like mice, hamsters, and gerbils. No matter how much one studies, researches, and works with exotic animals, there is always more to learn. I am eager to share my knowledge about proper standards and protocols for the care of all types of animals, and the kids get to learn while enjoying the hands-on interactions with all kinds of critters in a safe, supervised, and fun environment. I believe students enjoy attending my class because I truly have a deep passion and love for the subjects I teach.

WELCOME TO THE SUMMER ISSUE OF THE COURSE GUIDE!

We hope your year is going well, and we’re excited to have lots of fun stuff for you and yours to enjoy this summer.

Before we go any further though, we want to thank you. Thanks to your support and feedback, Professional and Public Programs (P3) has been able to consistently offer new and innovative programming and build a strong, engaged and responsive online community. We wouldn’t be where we are without you. Our community members open us up to all sorts of new opportunities every day. A good example of this is on page 14. There, you’ll read about how a request from a local high school administrator led to an innovative initiative that greatly benefits high school seniors. This is the sort of thing we love—using what we do to create positive opportunities and experiences in our community.

Going forward, we want to do more, at every level, and you are an important part of that. Tell us what you think of our offerings, give us suggestions for a class we might offer or a talent we might showcase, or even just say hello. We love hearing from you, and you never know where it might lead. Just hop on over to ppp@utep.edu to email us or connect with us on the social media platform of your choice. We want to hear from you!

You will have noticed our dual cover—our camps for kids are a big deal every summer and showcasing them seemed only right. We have lots of choices to keep your kids engaged (and even learning) while they’re out of school. And, as always, we have something for everyone else too.

You hope you will find that “right course” you have been looking for this summer. Don’t forget to check out our interactive catalog on our website at ppp.utep.edu.

Let the summer fun begin! See you in class!

Former Participant, Adult Leisure and Learning (ALL)

Classes attended: Kickboxing and Boxing

Veronica M. wanted to gain strength, flexibility and better overall conditioning. She got all this and more when she enrolled in P3’s kickboxing and boxing classes.

The timing of the classes was convenient and Veronica enjoyed meeting other people (an unexpected bonus). The instructor was knowledgeable and ensured that everyone got the most they could out of the class. The class was challenging and it was sometimes hard to keep up, but Veronica finished it as she had intended: stronger and more conditioned. “I would recommend this class,” she says. “Anyone who is taking it will feel good about the workout and [know] how to defend [themselves] in a bad situation.”

FEATURED COURSES

FOR YOUTH
See the other half of this publication for our youth Languages course options.
The English Language Institute (ELI) provides a quality, intensive English as a Second Language program for non-native speakers from all over the world.

Our goal is to ensure that upon completion of our program, our students will have sufficient grasp of the English language to function in American society with ease. ELI students will learn the fundamental components of the English language, such as grammar, comprehension, reading, writing, speech, pronunciation, and accent reduction, as well as explore American culture, customs, attitudes, and English idioms.

Coupled with El Paso’s unique border culture, our strategic learning program provides a captivating experience that cannot be found anywhere else. Choose from morning and evening weekday courses and weekend daytime classes. All courses are located on campus.

Admission to the ELI Program is not the same as admission to The University of Texas at El Paso (UTEP). If you wish to obtain admission to the University, you must apply directly to UTEP.

See next page for a brief listing of our Summer 2020 courses for ELI.

Meet our participant

Darom L.

Darom L. came to the United States from Korea in September 2019. A relative who lives in El Paso recommended UTEP to her and suggested she take courses here. Darom joined the Intensive English program offered by ELI soon after arriving. Her goal was to learn English and eventually pass the Test of English as a Foreign Language (TOEFL), a necessary step for all international students from non-English speaking countries.

Darom is now part of ELI’s Spring 2020 Core Class. She finds the TOEFL course challenging but is trying to get used to it and practice her English. She would like to attend university someday if she has the opportunity to do so, but for now, passing the TOEFL is her immediate goal.

In the meantime, she thoroughly enjoys the classes. Darom is getting better at speaking and listening and she loves that everybody—the instructors, students, and staff—is so friendly. Her favorite parts of the classes are all the activities like debates and vocabulary games.

“I would like to recommend this class to other students. It [offers] many opportunities to meet different people and experience other cultures instead of just studying.”

Meet our instructor

Gabe Solano

Why he is passionate about pharmacy training: There are many areas of pharmacy that draw out my passion and desire to teach. Two areas I concentrate on are patient safety and customer service. I dig deep into my life and professional experiences so that I can convey the importance [of a pharmacy technician’s role] in healthcare.

Why he likes teaching for P3: I’ve learned to enjoy closing the “learning gap.” At times, I have students that are relearning a trade or are fresh from high school or college.

His favorite aspect of his class: The greatest feeling comes when a student’s facial expression changes from a puzzled look to a confident “I’ve got this.” [This course] changes lives in a positive manner. I have many students that are currently working as pharmacy technicians and others that have been inspired to further their education—[one student from my last class] has been accepted to a doctor of pharmacy program and the second is looking to apply to medical school.

Most important takeaway from his class: [Students learn that] the most important aspect is their role in preventing medication errors and the delivery of A+ customer service.

Collaboration With Local Magnet School Prepares Students for the Future

In March of 2018, Professional and Public Programs (P3) received an email from Assistant Principal of Franklin High School Magnet Center, Ms. Gabriela Marquez. She was interested in getting information about the Paralegal Certificate Course offered by UTEP P3 in partnership with JER Online. Specifically, she wanted to explore the possibility of high school seniors taking the course so they could graduate with a certification in their area of interest and therefore be more employable right out of school.

This had never before been done with high school students. Typically, students wait to do this until after graduation, not while they are still in high school. The idea originated from a Texas Education Agency (TEA) requirement that all the school’s pathways have certifications attached to them and meet the career track learning objectives taught through in-classroom and online instruction. However, to make the class available to high school students, several factors had to be figured out—course curriculum, time frame, age limit, and if the course could be offered during live classroom lecture.

The course is normally an online course, but JER Online was willing to allow high school seniors to take it and offered to create a hybrid course. The local Magnet instructor, Mr. Thomas Lott, could then combine this with his current curriculum. The students would learn the course information in class together, and then separately log into their online accounts to complete the online portion. Once the idea had been discussed and vetted through the proper channels, the process of creating the course and enrolling students began. In September 2019, the specially designed hybrid Paralegal Certificate Course was offered at Franklin High School Magnet Center, with six high school seniors enrolled. So far, the project has been very successful. All the enrolled students are moving towards successful completion and the school already has more than 30 students expressing interest for next school year. Ms. Marquez says, “I am glad that we are able to offer such a great opportunity to our students while they are still enrolled in high school. It is our hope that this course will help them as they progress towards continuing on this path in college.” The school expects to offer the course again next year and also hopes to offer similar certifications in other areas such as music production.

For students, this is a great way to prepare for professional life. Heavyn Varela, one of the six students enrolled in the program, says, “I am excited that I will soon get to work along with attorneys and professionals in the legal field. It is a great way to get my foot in the door!”
