Welcome!

You know that providing your employees with the best in professional development keeps them motivated, engaged and ahead of the competition, but finding exactly what you're looking for out there can be challenging. Let us help.

We know that unique needs require unique solutions. We'll work with you to design a custom training program that

- is based specifically on your unique needs
- is flexible and can be delivered however you need it
- is cost-effective and easy to implement
- is delivered by professional, experienced instructors
- brings the results you need

A Personal Approach

We will help your organization plan and design customized learning solutions that optimize performance, increase productivity and provide a return on investment. We will take out the guesswork by developing result-driven content that meets your unique needs and aligns your employees' skills with your business goals.

Expect Focused, Measurable Results!

We are extremely flexible as our primary goal is to properly train your employees at your convenience.

We provide:

- Needs analysis and assessment
- Instructional design & delivery
- Curriculum design & development
- Professional development solutions

To simplify the process:

You can start by completing our online training needs assessment at ppp.utep.edu/cct

Continuing Education Units

We are happy to assist any UTEP department, unit, or program by evaluating, processing and awarding CEUs.

The Continuing Education Unit (CEU) is a uniform unit of measurement to record participation in nonacademic, professional and vocational programs. It is based upon attendance in short courses and other noncredit continuing educational programs. Learn more about CEUs at our Continuing Education Unit webpage.

To request CEUs for your course, please fill out the form or click on the button below.
