MyCAA: Scholarship for Military Spouses

The Defense Department expanded scholarship eligibility for military spouses as part of its commitment to take care of service members and their families.

You can check your eligibility for the scholarship by visiting the MyCAA website after you follow the steps we have provided on the next page.

MyCAA

UTEP's Military Spouse Career Advancement Accounts Program (MyCAA) provides financial assistance and a career path for military spouses. Professional and Public Programs at UTEP is a proud participant in this program. We are grateful for the sacrifice and courage of our men and women in the armed forces. Because we understand the strain that this can have on families who have a spouse on active duty, we want to help.

What is MYCAA?

MyCAA provides eligible military spouses up to $4,000 over two years to pursue professional certification programs, licenses or credentials that lead to employment in portable career fields.

5 STEPS TO GET YOU STARTED WITH US

1. Verify your MyCAA Eligibility.
Click here or visit the MyCAA website to set up a personal profile and complete the DEERS eligibility check to confirm your MyCAA eligibility
2. Create your Career and Education Training Plan
3. Upload your Education Plan
4. Apply for financial assistance
5. Start your studies

We are here to assist you in meeting the challenges of a rapidly changing and highly competitive global economy.

→ Click here to request information for: MyCAA

What are the MyCAA Financial Assistance Benefits?

MyCAA Financial Assistance (FA) pays tuition for education and training courses, and licensing/credentialing fees. This includes:

- State certifications for medical professionals and other occupations requiring recognized certifications
- Licensing exams and related prep courses
- Continuing Education Unit (CEU) classes
- Certification programs leading to employment in portable career fields

Who is eligible?

MyCAA is available for spouses of active duty service members in pay grades E1-E5, W1-W2 and O1-O2, as well as spouses of activated Guard and Reserve members at E1-E5, W1-W2 and O1-O2 pay grades (spouses of Guard and Reserve members must be able to start and complete their courses while their sponsor is on Title 10 orders).

What are the benefits of UTEP's MyCAA Program?

- Most of our courses are 100% online and available 24/7
- You can work at your own pace
- Expert instructors are available to support you along the way
- Materials are included for most courses

Professional and Public Programs accepts MyCAA funding for approved training certification courses. To see the latest list of courses offered, visit us at <https://mycaa.militaryonesource.mil/mycaa/schools/profile/7175/campus/6844> or email us at gparthiban@utep.edu

ARMY CREDENTIALING ASSISTANCE PROGRAM

Professional and Public Programs is an approved ArmyIgniteED educational provider.

The Army Credentialing Assistance (CA) Program allows soldiers to earn professional and technical credentials. The CA program is similar to the Army's existing tuition assistance program and provides financial assistance for soldiers to pursue and earn credentials leading to an industry-recognized academic or vocational credential. These credentials do not have to be linked to the soldier's Military Occupational Specialty (MOS).

This is a voluntary, off-duty training and education program that directly contributes to improving total army readiness, supporting soldiers' professional development, retaining quality soldiers and preparing soldiers for meaningful employment upon transition from military service.

What is paid for?

Credentialing Assistance will pay for all necessary books, supplies and associated materials required for an approved training course and/or exam that shall not exceed $4,000.

Who is eligible for Army Credentialing Assistance?

As of January 2020, the Army Credentialing Assistance Program is available at bases nationwide.

- Soldiers must meet basic Federal TA eligibility requirements
- Soldiers cannot be flagged under provisions of AR 600-8-2
- Soldiers cannot be contracted ROTC scholarship cadets (receiving tuition and fees or room and board) or Green to Gold ROTC program cadets
- Soldiers must have enough time remaining in service to complete the credential before separating from the Army

5 STEPS TO GET YOU STARTED

- Step 1: Choose your credentialing course from the ArmyIgnite webpage
- Step 2 : Click on "Request information" and complete the form.
- Step 3: We will contact you to complete an online form and send an invoice to you for your chosen program.
- Step 4: Upload the invoice to the Army CA webpage.
- Step 5: Start your course.

My favorite thing about the course was how detailed it was with videos that show you how to properly draw blood and how to administer medicines. You can go back to lessons the you want to study again. The most challenging part was EKG because every person is different and everyone has different heart rhythm so you have know how to spot abnormalities. I would definitely recommend this course to other students because there is a lot you can learn and the challenges that come with it are definitely worth facing.”

Clinical Medical Assistant With Externship

“

My favorite thing [about the course] would have to be the accessibility. As a mom and military spouse life can get hectic. The ability to log on at any time to read, finish assignments, etc. has been great and so helpful in allowing me to complete the course on my own time. The most challenging thing (which was not too bad) was waiting on the books to arrive as I like to pre-read and get an idea of the material. I would 100% recommend this course - it was easy to follow, accessible, includes helpful exercises to help you retain the information and a great team behind it to help you along the way.”

Classes attended:

CCMA

“

I enjoyed [the course] being self-paced. I didn't feel overwhelmed with the modules that needed to completed, and I was able to finish my course with time to spare.”

Jealiany R

Classes attended:

Phlebotomy Technician

“

My goal was to work for a nonprofit debt management company. I think [all the people helping me were] wonderful. I am not very good with computers so I [called on them] often and they were very helpful. My favorite thing about the course was that gave the history of finance and credit cards. The most challenging thing for me was doing the course [in the midst of] the distractions of everyday life at home. I would recommend this course for anyone interested in learning about their finances, whether for a job or just themselves.”

Govindasamy Parthiban

Program Manager

Govindasamy Parthiban (Sam) embarked on his journey with Professional and Public Programs in October 2012 as a work-study and became a Program Manager in 2014. Sam holds a Master's in Leadership and another in Educational Administration from UTEP; he also has a Specialist Diploma in Learning Sciences, a distinction earned from the National Institute of Education in Singapore.

A native Singaporean by birth, Sam dedicated nearly three decades of his life to the Singapore Armed Forces prior to becoming a permanent resident of the United States in 2019. During that time, he contributed significantly to various United Nations peacekeeping missions. Later in his career he became an instructor at the Sergeants Major Academy (USASMA) at Fort Bliss and rose to the position of Division Command Sergeant Major before retiring in 2012.

Sam is a proud father to daughter Priyanka who is a Combat Medic stationed in Colorado.
