At the end of the fall semester, we asked Edge Student Leaders about what kept them engaged and successful in their online classes and what they hoped to see in new ones. This Grab-N-Go features their feedback.

Encourage Students to
- Check into the class regularly
- Manage their time well and get the work done
- Interact and collaborate with their peers

Engage
- Provide social spaces for students to interact with each other
- Meet students online during office hours
- Send regular, helpful communication and be approachable

Create
- Weekly modules that are simple to follow and with a manageable workload
- Visual aids for the content when possible to accommodate different learner types
- Engaging assignments and activities

Provide
- Flexible and continuous access to content
- Reminders for upcoming work and deadlines
- The Guide to Student Success in Online Courses

Don’t
- Record long lecture videos
- Give long live lectures without any interaction opportunities
- Overwhelm students with a very heavy workload and unrealistic deadlines

Resources
