CONTRIBUTOR PARENT(S) MARITAL STATUS

What was your CONTRIBUTOR PARENT(s) marital status as of the date you filed your FAFSA?

Visit <http://www.StudentAid.gov/fafsa-parent> for more information on who is considered your contributor parent.

- ☐ Never Married
 ☐ Parent's Divorced
☐ Parent(s) Not Married but Living Together
 ☐ Parent Separated
☐ Married (Not Separated)
 ☐ Parent Widowed
☐ Remarried

Extended family members or other individuals (such as your adult siblings, nieces, nephews, etc.) may be included only if they live with your contributor parents AND receive more than half their support from your contributor parents during the school year. Extended family members should not be listed in the family size if they are:

- Working/employed/self-employed
- Receiving means-tested benefits (SNAP, TANF, WIC, subsidized housing, etc.)
- Receiving pensions/retirement
- Receive Social Security Income or Disability payments

For your parent to claim they support an individual who is receiving any of the benefits listed above, your parent's total financial support must exceed the amount they receive from these sources. Please consider these sources of income carefully before claiming that your parent(s) support extended family members or other individuals more than 50%.

FAMILY SIZE

List the people in your contributor parent's household. Include:

- The student,
- The student's parent (and their spouse), even if the student is not living with them because of college enrollment. Exclude a parent who has died or is not living in the household because of separation or divorce.
- The student's siblings if the following are true:
 - They live with the student's parent(s) (or live apart because of college enrollment),
 - They receive more than half of their financial support from your parents', and
 - They will continue to receive more than half of their support from the student's parents during the award year.
- Other persons if they now live with your contributor parent and your parent provided more than half of their support and will continue to provide more than half of their support from July 1, 2025 through June 30, 2026.
- THE PARENT SHOULD NOT INCLUDE ANY UNBORN CHILDREN IN THE FAMILY SIZE.
