Colleges, Departments, and Academic Units

Section: III: Academic Affairs
Chapter: 2
Date Updated: October 18, 2017

Each of the colleges consists of a number of schools, departments, and programs in which the functions of teaching and research are carried out. The purpose of the colleges is to provide an administrative structure through which the schools, departments, or programs contained in that college may function. Discrete schools, departments, and program offices established as academic administrative units by the University are listed below.

2.1 College of Business Administration

- Department of Accounting
- Department of Economics and Finance
- Department of Information and Decision Sciences
- Department of Marketing and Management

2.2 College of Education

- Department of Educational Leadership and Foundations
- Department of Educational Psychology and Special Services
- Department of Teacher Education

2.3 College of Engineering

- Department of Civil Engineering
- Department of Computer Science
- Department of Electrical and Computer Engineering
- Department of Mechanical and Industrial Engineering
- Department of Metallurgical and Materials Engineering

2.4 College of Liberal Arts

- Department of African American Studies
- Department of Art
- Department of Chicano Studies
- Department of Communication
Department of Criminal Justice
Department of English
Department of History
Department of Languages and Linguistics
Department of Latin American Studies
Department of Music
Department of Philosophy
Department of Political Science
Department of Psychology
Department of Sociology and Anthropology
Department of Theatre and Dance

2.5 College of Health Sciences

Department of Kinesiology
Department of Public Health Sciences
Department of Rehabilitation Sciences
Department of Social Work

2.6 College of Science

Department of Biological Sciences
Department of Chemistry
Department of Geological Sciences
Department of Mathematical Sciences
Department of Physics

2.7 School of Nursing