

El Paso County, Texas

EL PASO, TEXAS

2021 SNAPSHOT *

El Paso County has a thriving population of...

861K approx.

With a Hispanic Population of...

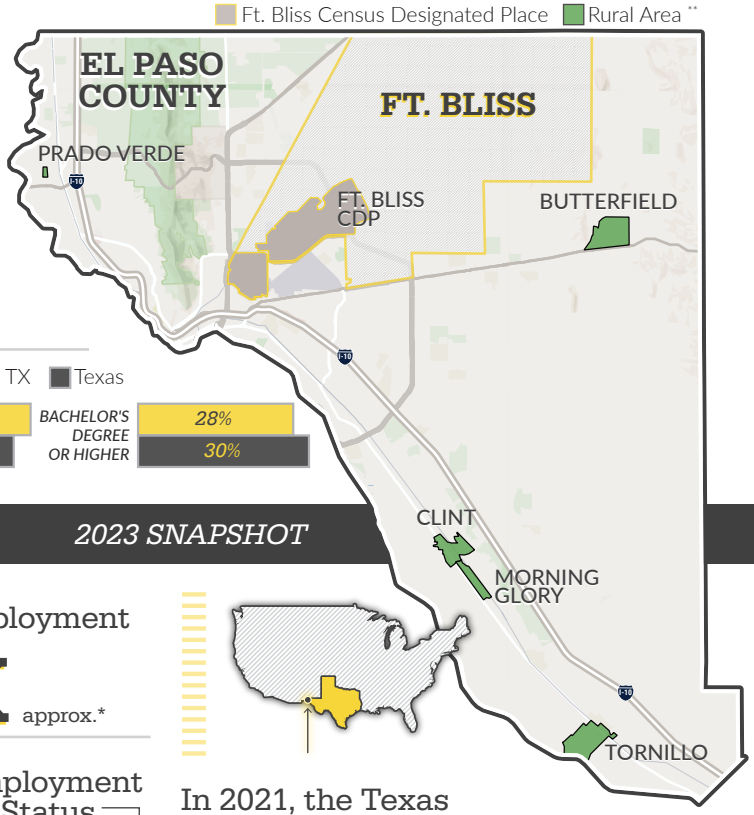

83%

A Total Household count of approximately...

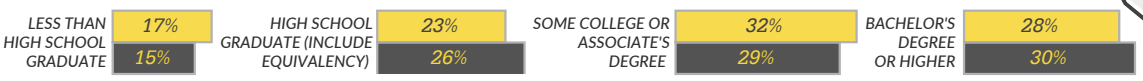

288K

and a Median Household Income of...

$51K

EDUCATIONAL ATTAINMENT (%) AS OF 2021

FORT BLISS

2023 SNAPSHOT

Occupies a total of 1,120,000 acres

With a Total Direct Employment impact of...

47K approx.*

and a GDP impact of...

$13.5B*

Total Households...

2.3K

Median Household Income of...

$56K

Employment Status

11.9K

Civilian Labor Force

38.5K

Active Duty

Population of Service members and families...

77K

Military living...

On Post 13%

Off Post 57%

Soldiers In Barracks

30%

In 2021, the Texas Comptroller of Public Accounts estimated that the population directly affiliated with Fort Bliss, in El Paso, made a significant economic contribution of at least $22.9 billion to the Texas economy.

In 2021...

El Paso ranked as the #3 safest large city in America ***

NOTE: * 2021 data based on the most recent information available from the U.S. Census Bureau, as of September 30, 2023.  The U.S. Census Bureau defines rural as what is not urban - that is, a population of less than 2,500.  A large city has more than 300,000 residents.

SOURCE: Hunt Institute using data from the U.S. Census Bureau, the Federal Bureau of Investigation, the World Bank, AdvisorSmith. and Regional Economic Models, Inc. (REMI) - model for Texas.

UTEP HUNT INSTITUTE FOR GLOBAL COMPETITIVENESS

Manufacturing Power House & Trade Leader

2022 SNAPSHOT

El Paso County occupies a strategic location at the crossroads of North America, sharing borders with two countries and connecting two states. Positioned at the intersection of east-west trade routes and nestled in the heart of North America from south to north, it plays a crucial role in the United States' economy.

EL PASO COUNTY RANKS AS

#2 in total trade value through the U.S.-Mexico border ports of entry in 2022 with a...

Total Trade Value of... $104B

Share of... 15.4% Total U.S.–MX Border Trade Value

#2 in noncommercial crossings

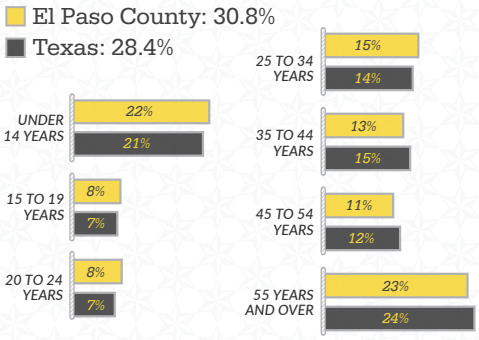

25M Noncommercial Crossings

#4 in loaded container truck crossings

476K Loaded Container Truck Crossings

MANUFACTURING EMPLOYMENT

El Paso County has a higher percentage of young individuals between 15 and 34 years old compared to Texas as a whole in 2021.*

Younger population = greater future workforce

The El Paso-Las Cruces-Juárez region holds the #5 position in terms of significant manufacturing employment and the #1 position in terms of manufacturing concentration in 2022.

Combined Statistical Area	Manufacturing Employment 2022	Total Nonfarm Employment 2022	Manufacturing %
Los Angeles-Long Beach-Anaheim	477K	6.2M	7.7%
Chicago-Naperville-Elgin	406K	4.7M	8.6%
San Diego-Carlsbad-Tijuana	351K	3.2M	10.9%
New York-Newark-Jersey	347K	9.8M	3.5%
El Paso-Las Cruces-Juárez	322K	1.6M	16.7%
Dallas-Fort Worth-Arlington	300K	4.1M	7.3%
Detroit-Warren-Dearborn	248K	2.0M	12.4%
Houston-The Woodlands-Sugar Land	224K	3.2M	6.9%
Minneapolis-St. Paul-Bloomington	203K	1.9M	10.4%
Philadelphia-Camden-Wilmington	179K	3.0M	5.9%

NOTE: * 2021 data based on the most recent information available from the U.S. Census Bureau, as of September 30, 2023.
SOURCE: Hunt Institute using data from the U.S. Bureau of Labor Statistics, U.S. Census Bureau, Bureau of Transportation Statistics, INEGI, and JobsEQ.

UTEP HUNT INSTITUTE FOR GLOBAL COMPETITIVENESS