“WHAT IS THE CONNECTION BETWEEN SCHOOL AND LIFE? - CIVIC ENGAGEMENT AND THE PUBLIC GOOD.”

A college education is about so much more than getting a good job. Three UTEP deans explore the opportunities that college presents from their distinct academic perspectives.

PRESENTED BY

SHAFIK DHARAMSI, PH.D.
Dean, College of Health Sciences

DENIS O’HEARN, PH.D.
Dean, College of Liberal Arts

CLIFTON TANABE, PH.D.
Dean, College of Education

Friday, January 25, 2019
1:30 – 3 pm
El Paso Natural Gas Conference Center

The purpose of the Dean’s Dialogues series is to give students the chance to share ideas and promote issues with the dean, college administrators, faculty and staff, and invited guests. The focus is to listen and engage.

Topics will range from those important around the college to around the world, including ethics, global literacy, cultural competence and social responsibility.

The location will alternate between the on-campus Health Sciences and Nursing Building and the off-campus Campbell Building.

Information: mwlusk@utep.edu or 915-747-8588