

THE BENEFITS OF TEACHING CLASSES AT OLLI

THE OSHER LIFELONG LEARNING INSTITUTE WOULD LIKE TO TALK TO YOU.

A Department Opportunity

Put together a 6 week class with a different faculty member, adjunct faculty, TA or grad students covering each week.

WHAT:

The topic can be something within the area of study of the department.

BENEFITS:

- Teaching OLLI classes can be a rich and rewarding experience.
- The topic within the faculty members' expertise may require little preparation.
- OLLI instructors report that the teaching process deepens their own knowledge of the subject matter.
- Teach without concerns about grades, homework and exams.
- There is a stipend of $450.00 that will go to the Department.

WHEN:

Spring semester February-April (2 six week session) (taking proposals now)
Summer session – June-July (six weeks)
Fall semester – September-December (2 six week sessions)

WHERE:

Classes are held in Miners Hall on the UTEP campus. Weekday afternoons.
Classes can be at 1:30 pm or 3:15 pm and are generally 1 ½ hours per week

HOW:

Contact Ian Wilson iwilson@utep.edu, 747-6374 to receive proposal forms for upcoming session.

THIS MIGHT BE JUST THE CLASS YOU'D LOVE TO TEACH.

A recent faculty member: "I wish I'd known about these classes a long time ago. The students are great!"
