

Dr. Jakobi Williams

Please join us in welcoming Dr. Jakobi Williams to the University of Texas at El Paso as keynote speaker for the African American Studies Program's Annual Lecture Series.

UTEP'S AFRICAN AMERICAN STUDIES PROGRAM PRESENTS
AN EVENING WITH PROFESSOR JAKOBI WILLIAMS

Thursday, February 8, 2024

6:30 P.M. Undergraduate Learning Center, Room 126

Dr. Jakobi Williams is the Ruth N. Halls Associate Professor and Chair of the Department of African American and African Diaspora Studies at Indiana University-Bloomington with a joint appointment in the Department of History. Professor Williams is a Civil Rights, Black Power, Social Justice, and African American history scholar who has lectured domestically and internationally regarding Civil Rights and Social Justice movements. His most recent book, From the Bullet to the Ballot: The Illinois Chapter of the Black Panther Party and Racial Coalition Politics in Chicago, served as the foundation for the script to the Warner Brothers' multi-Oscar award-winning film, Judas and the Black Messiah.

This event is free and open to the public.

Information: utep.edu/aasp

