COURSE DESCRIPTION: Painting 3 is a course that builds on techniques learned in painting 1 and 2 that lead to the development of one's own imagery, ideas, and concepts. You are expected to work in the studio during class time and outside of class in order to develop the work ethic required to be a serious painter. The ability to discuss your work and classmate's work in concise and formal analytical terms is an important aspect of the class.

COURSE PRE-REQUISITE INFORMATION: The prerequisites for Painting 3301 are ARTF 1301 ARTF 1302, and PNTNG 2331 or instructor approval.

COURSE GOALS AND OBJECTIVES:

COURSE REQUIREMENTS:

Student work will be reviewed throughout the course of the semester, meaning I will be following the progress of your work. A body of work is the goal you should be focused on as this will contribute to the development of your ideas, artistic vision, and success. There is no set quantity of paintings required, but only completing 1 or 2 paintings in the semester is unacceptable. I will be highly critical of your output and will expect a high level of artistic work ethic. A lack of work ethic will be easy to note and result in a low grade. Readings and other instructional media will be provided to the class and allow for discussions as a group or one-to-one. Participation, discussion, and attendance to critiques are required. In certain cases, specific assignments may be given to student(s) in order address issues or concepts on an as-needed basis. FINAL CRITIQUE FOR THIS COURSE IS THUR. DEC. 11, 1:00 PM – 3:45 PM

Absences may be excused with official documentation for serious illness, death in the immediate family, or university sanctioned events. Arriving to class late or leaving early counts as ½ absence. Students with excessive absences and tardiness should consider dropping this course and taking at a time when the student can commit to the course.

Critiques are equivalent to an exam. Late arrivals to critiques may not be critiqued, this will be at the discretion of the instructor.
