Course Title: Multiplicity in Art Education /Special Topics in Art Education
Course prefix and number: ARTE 3347; ART 3307
Meeting Time: Tuesday & Thursday 4:30 – 5:50pm
Location: Room A463

Instructor Information

Course Instructor: Dr. Heather Kaplan

Email: hgkaplan@utep.edu

Office hours: Tuesday & Thursday 3:00- 4:00pm and by appointment

Office location: A461A Fox Fine Arts

Course Description

This course is designed for students who plan to work in the field of art education. This course provides a preliminary look at the variety of approaches and paths within the field of art education. During this class students will consider the various sites, perspectives, and voices that constitute art and art education. A variety of viewpoints and perspectives will be explored and we will consider the multiple and varied voices and learners that make up a democratic (art) educational space. We will explore social constructivist learning theory and create lessons that address and accommodate different learners.

Course Prerequisites

This class is a required class for students enrolled in the Art Education concentration. ARTE 2307 is a prerequisite for Art education students; they may also take ARTE 2307 concurrently with this class. Interested Department of Art students and College of Liberal Arts students may enroll in this class as an upper division elective with no prerequisite.

Course Goals and Objectives

1. Students will become more responsive and worldly global citizens through the study of self and others
2. Students will expand their understanding of the multiple myriad artist perspectives and approaches and apply this understanding to proposed and realized art curriculum.
3. Students will gain a greater understanding of the educational context of the state, region, and border
4. Students will gain an understanding of the diverse issues facing visual culture and art education
5. Students will gain practice identifying, researching, and presenting ideas and issues of art, education, and art education that will inform their teaching and their students' artmaking.

Course Outcomes

1. Students will be able to locate themselves and their future students among theories of the border and of diversity
2. Students will be able to identify, critique, and create lessons or artworks inspired by artist working through a variety of positionalities and viewpoints.
3. Students will be able to identify and share with their peers issues of interest to art and education in the state.
4. Students will be able to plan and implement an art lesson that engages multiplicity in an audience appropriate manner.
5. Students will plan and create an educational resource that addresses an issue of visual culture that can be used in their future educational workspace

Technology Requirements

Up to 49% of course content may be delivered online. This means that some of the course content will be delivered via the Internet through the Blackboard learning management system. Ensure your UTEP e-mail account is working and that you have access to the web and a stable web browser. Google Chrome and Mozilla Firefox are the best browsers for Blackboard; other browsers may cause complications. When having technical difficulties, update your browser, clear your cache, or try switching to another browser.

You will need to have access to a computer/laptop, scanner, a webcam, and a microphone. You will need to download or update the following software: Microsoft Office, Adobe Acrobat Reader, Windows Media Player, QuickTime, and Java. Check that your computer hardware and software are up-to-date and able to access all parts of the course.

If you do not have word-processing software, you can download Word and other Microsoft Office programs (including Excel, PowerPoint, Outlook and more) for free via UTEP's Microsoft Office Portal. Click the following link for more information about Microsoft Office 365 and follow the instructions.

IMPORTANT: If you encounter technical difficulties beyond your scope of troubleshooting, please contact the UTEP Help Desk as they are trained specifically in assisting with technological needs of students.

Course Communication

Communication in this class may take many forms including in person communication, email, Blackboard discussion, or zoom meetings. Below a variety of methods of communication are enumerated:

- o Office Hours: My office hours will be Tuesdays 1:30 -2:30 and by appointment. You may make an appointment to meet on campus or on Zoom. Please email me to set up an appointment.
- o Email: For this course, UTEP email is used as a primary means of communicating with students. Email is sent to UTEP accounts. It is the student's responsibility to check email or forward emails to an account that he or she checks regularly. Please DO NOT email assignments- unless otherwise indicated assignments should be submitted to blackboard. UTEP e-mail is the best way to contact me. I will make every attempt to respond to your e-mail within 24-48 hours of receipt. When emailing me, be sure to email from your UTEP student account. In the body of your e-mail, clearly state your question. At the end of your e-mail, be sure to put your first and last name.

- Discussion Board: If you have a question that you believe other students may also have, please post it in the Help Board of the discussion boards inside of Blackboard. Please respond to other students' questions if you have a helpful response.
- Announcements: Check the Blackboard announcements frequently for any updates, deadlines, or other important messages.
- Synchronous zoom meetings may be held in lieu of in person discussions/lectures and/or will constitute office hours. During zoom meetings please turn on the video and mute your microphone unless you are actively speaking. When breakout rooms are used please follow these protocols.

Modeling Professionalism and Netiquette

You are expected to maintain professional conduct at all times in the class. This includes being on time to class meetings. Respect for all members of the class is expected. Please allow for individual differences and opinions. As we know, sometimes communication can be challenging. Especially online, it's possible to miscommunicate what we mean or to misunderstand what our classmates mean given the lack of body language and immediate feedback. Therefore, please keep these class and netiquette (network etiquette) guidelines in mind. Failure to observe them may result in disciplinary action.

- Always consider audience. This is a college-level course; therefore, all communication should reflect polite consideration of other's ideas.
- Respect and courtesy must be provided to classmates and to the instructor at all times. No harassment or inappropriate postings will be tolerated.
- When reacting to someone else's message, address the ideas, not the person. Post only what anyone would comfortably state in a face-to-face situation.
- Blackboard is not a public internet venue; all postings to it should be considered private and confidential. Whatever is posted on in these online spaces is intended for classmates and professor only. Please do not copy documents and paste them to a publicly accessible website, blog, or other space.

Attendance and Participation

Regular class attendance is expected. For each absence after the second (2) absence your grade will be lowered one letter grade (A to B). Three (3) incidents of tardiness or leaving class early equals one absence. Attendance in the course is determined by participation in the learning activities of the course. Your participation in the course is important not only for your learning and success but also to create a community of learners. Participation is determined by completion of the following activities:

- Reading/Viewing all course materials to ensure understanding of assignment requirements
- Participating/ engaging in discussion with your peers on the discussion boards
- Participating in scheduled Blackboard Collaborate sessions
- Participating in classroom activities and discussions

Active participation is an important component of any studio or art-based environment. You will be expected to come prepared for class, to participate in class discussion and to share your work while contributing to an atmosphere where others may share and participate in turn. Should these issues become problematic, the instructor reserves the right to deduct a letter grade from the final grade calculation.

Missed Assignments

It is the responsibility of the student to be in class in order to complete course work. Should you miss class it is your responsibility to complete the work missed or to propose and complete a similar assignment. The instructor must approve any proposed makeup assignment. Please consider making an appointment outside of class time to discuss missed work.

Late Assignments

Instructor reserves the right to assign lower grades on late assignments.

Working and Preparedness for Class

You will be expected to come prepared for class (bringing all necessary supplies, projects, and readings) and be ready to work. On workdays you will be engaged and working. If you come unprepared to work or do not work during the entire time allotted 10-25% of the points possible for the project will be deducted.

Email

For this course, email is used as a primary means of communicating with students. Email is sent to UTEP accounts. It is the student's responsibility to check email or forward emails to an account that he or she checks regularly. Please DO NOT email assignments, they will not be accepted.

Course Drop Policy

I will not drop you from the course. However, if you feel that you are unable to complete the course successfully, please let me know and then contact the Registrar's Office to initiate the drop process. If you do not, you are at risk of receiving an "F" for the course.

In Person and Synchronous Online Meetings

Typically, this class will meet in person. It is possible (especially in emergency situations) that this class may require that you participate in scheduled synchronous online class sessions. During these online sessions we will use zoom; however, please be flexible as issues or changes with the technology may require that we switch to Microsoft Teams or Blackboard collaborate (both of which should be available through the blackboard website). The purpose of these sessions is for you to view live demonstrations of the course material and/or to participate in small discussion groups with your classmates. These sessions will be held during our scheduled class time Tuesday and Thursday 4:30-5:50pm.

AI Policy: AI allowed only with prior permission from instructor

Use of AI technologies or automated tools, particularly generative AI such as ChatGPT or DALL-E, is only allowed with approval from the instructor BEFORE being used. Without permission, you will be expected to think creatively and critically to complete assignments without assistance from these tools.

If given permission to use any of these tools, students must properly cite and give full credit to the program used upon submission of every relevant assignment. For example, text generated using ChatGPT must be cited:

Chat-GPT(version). Date of query (year/month/day). "Text of your query."
Generated using OpenAI. <https://chat.openai.com/>

A short paragraph describing how the tool(s) was/were used for the assignment must be included.

Plagiarism/Academic Dishonesty Statement

Academic dishonesty is prohibited and is considered a violation of the UTEP Handbook of Operating Procedures. It includes, but is not limited to, cheating, plagiarism, and collusion. Cheating may involve copying from or providing information to another student, possessing unauthorized materials during a test, or falsifying research data on laboratory reports. Plagiarism occurs when someone intentionally or knowingly represents the words or ideas of another as ones' own. Collusion involves collaborating with another person to commit any academically dishonest act. Any act of academic dishonesty attempted by a UTEP student is unacceptable and will not be tolerated. All suspected violations of academic integrity at The University of Texas at El Paso must be reported to the Office of Student Conduct and Conflict Resolution (OSCCR) for possible disciplinary action. To learn more, please visit HOOP: Student Conduct and Discipline.

Accommodations Statement

The university is committed to providing reasonable accommodations and auxiliary services to students, staff, faculty, job applicants, applicants for admissions, and other beneficiaries of university programs, services and activities with documented disabilities in order to provide them with equal opportunities to participate in programs, services, and activities in compliance with sections 503 and 504 of the Rehabilitation Act of 1973, as amended, and the Americans with Disabilities Act (ADA) of 1990 and the Americans with Disabilities Act Amendments Act (ADAAA) of 2008. Reasonable accommodations will be made unless it is determined that doing so would cause undue hardship on the University. I will work with students through CASS to make reasonable accommodations for students with limitations due to disabilities. Students requesting an accommodation based on a disability must register with the UTEP Center for Accommodations and Support Services (CASS). Contact the Center for Accommodations and Support Services at 915-747-5148, or email them at cass@utep.edu, or apply for accommodations online via the CASS portal.

Student Pregnancy and Parenting Nondiscrimination Policy

The University of Texas at El Paso (University) is committed to maintaining a learning environment that is free from discrimination of pregnant or parenting students in accordance with the Texas Education Code, Section 51.982 and other applicable laws, such as Title IX of the Higher Education Amendments of 1972 (Title IX), which prohibits discrimination on the basis of sex (including pregnancy discrimination) in education programs or activities; Section 504 of the Rehabilitation Act of 1973, which prohibits discrimination on the basis of a disability (including disabilities based on temporary medical conditions from pregnancy); and Title II of the Americans with Disabilities Act of 1990 (ADA), which prohibits discrimination against individuals with disabilities in public schools such as institutions of higher education.

Reasonable Accommodations: The University will offer reasonable accommodations to pregnant students, in accordance with state and federal laws and regulations. Accommodation requests are voluntary and involve an individualized, interactive process where both the University and the student engage in a good faith discussion based on the student's specific needs with the goal of identifying reasonable options for accommodations. Accommodations that constitute undue hardship are not reasonable.

Reasonable accommodations for pregnant students may include but are not limited to:

- Excused absences with the availability to make up missed assignments or coursework;
- Additional time to complete assignments (applied in the same manner as ADA/504 accommodations for additional time on assignments or tests, with required documentation);
- Allowing the student to maintain a safe distance from substances, areas, and activities known to be hazardous to pregnant students or unborn children;
- Access to instructional materials and video recordings of lectures (if available) for classes due to excused absences due to pregnancy or related conditions (applied in the same manner as any other student with excused absences); and
- Any other accommodations deemed reasonable, based on the student's individual needs.

Course Resources

UTEP provides a variety of student services and support that may be helpful for this course:

- Help Desk: Students experiencing technological challenges (email, Blackboard, software, etc.) can submit a ticket to the UTEP Helpdesk for assistance. Contact the Helpdesk via phone, email, chat, website, or in person if on campus
- UTEP Library: Access a wide range of resources including online, full-text access to thousands of journals and eBooks plus reference service and librarian assistance for enrolled students.
- University Writing Center \(UWC\): Submit papers here for assistance with writing style and formatting, ask a tutor for help and explore other writing resources.
- COED Center for Student Success: Help with College of Education specific advising and admissions to the Educator Prep Program.

Individual Resources

- Military Student Success Center: Assists personnel in any branch of service to reach their educational goals.
- Center for Accommodations and Support Services: Assists students with ADA related accommodations for coursework, housing, and internships.
- Counseling and Psychological Services: Provides a variety of counseling services including individual, couples, and group sessions as well as career and disability assessments.
- UTEP Food Pantry provides free food for any student in need.

Grade Distribution and Criteria

All grades are calculated using percentages and converted into letter grades according to the following scale:

A = 100 – 90

B = 89 – 80

C = 79 – 70

D = 69 – 60

F = 59 and below

Your grade will be determined across an array of activities and skills. You will be graded on participation, art making, written reflections, lesson plans and assessments, performance-based assessments of instruction, curriculum creation and planning, pedagogical activities and your reflection and assessment of your own pedagogical practice.

The following is a general outline of the class assignments and their grade distribution (which is subject to change based on the needs of this class – additional determinations will be made based on the emergent needs of the class):

Assignments

Who am I (and who am I in relation to my students)? -Pre and Post-Test 15pts

You will write a 1 page statement of who you are considering what you know about issues of diversity and identity. This will be done once at the beginning of the semester and once again at the end of the semester. These documents should not be the same and should demonstrate a difference in your thinking over time. Should you choose not to complete one of the statements you will receive no points for the assignment.

Leading with Art and Artists 3 x 10pts =40pts

We will explore issues of diversity through the study of art and artists. We will view the works of a variety of artists in relation to each other in order to develop a multi-vocal and comparative understanding of issues of diversity. We will discuss and critique the works in order to develop deeper understanding. We will consider the work's application to schools and consider how these artists, works, and ideas can serve as or be modified in order to act as educational resources in schools. After these discussions you will create art works, objectives, assignment sheets and art lesson plan relating to issue/grouping for application with children or youth in a school, community, or a museum setting. You will do this for a total three different issues/groupings.

Exploring/Researching the intersection of (art) education and diversity 15pts

You will consider contemporary/current issues affecting education in the Southwest and in particular Texas. After viewing Precious Knowledge and reading and discussing articles about Arizona's battle over ethnic studies in the Journal of Curriculum and Pedagogy you will research and identify an educational issue in the state of Texas. You will present this issue to your classmates for discussion and exploration. You will design an art lesson for your peers to complete in response to what you teach them.

Read-Aloud 15pts

You will work with a small group of your peers to create a read-aloud and art making experience for children and families at a local community space. Together you will research children's books relevant to issues of art and multiplicity, choose one, and practice read-aloud techniques. You will plan related art making. You will read the book and facilitate the related art making activity with children. Finally, you will document this activity and write a reflection of the experience.

Shared Digital Educational Resource 15pts

For this final assignment, you will create a digital educational resource appropriate for a chosen context and audience. The resource will demonstrate your ability to apply what you have learned throughout the course by addressing a significant topic or issue relevant to visual culture, diversity, and justice. This resource will be “published”/shared in a digital format with your peers.

Grade Distribution

Who I am	7.5 × 2pts= 15pts
Leading with Art and Artists	3 × 10pts= 30pts
Exploring/Researching Intersections	15pts
Read-A-Loud	15pts
Shared Digital Educational Resource	15pts

TOTAL 100pts

*Please note that this syllabus is subject to change. Please pay attention for changes and contact the instructor with questions. By choosing to enroll in this class, you agree to the conditions of this syllabus.
