

History of Art II Spring 2024

Course Title: History of Art II

Course prefix and number: ARTH 1306-001; CRN 20656

Quinn Hall 212 MW 1:30-2:20

ARTH 1306 is designed to expose the student to major works of western art over a broad span of history from c. 1300 to the twentieth century. Our interests will turn to the artist, the creator of the work; style, the characteristics of a work peculiar to its time, culture, place, and creator; technique, or how the work was made; as well as iconography, or the study of meaning, symbolism and messages carried in a work of art. We will look at the visual arts – painting, sculpture, and architecture – in many different contexts: religious, political, economic and social. The course demonstrates how the production of art and architecture is linked to governmental, religious, and philosophical systems (the social and cultural world) and climate and geography (the natural world).

ARTH 1306 is a core class and can be used to fulfill the Creative Arts component of your Core Curriculum requirements. All courses used to satisfy the core curriculum must be completed with a grade of “C” or better.

ARTH 1306 is a required course for the art history major and minor.

Course content is delivered by the instructor in the form of face-to-face lectures in Quinn Hall 212 on Mondays and Wednesdays from 1:30-2:50. Other course work will be completed in Blackboard, UTEP’s online learning system. Exams and quizzes will be taken in Blackboard. Instructional videos, web links to art sites, the class syllabus and schedule, and grades will be accessed in Blackboard.

Required Text: Gardner’s Art Through the Ages: The Western Perspective (Fifteenth Edition), Vol. II by Fred S. Kleiner. DIGITAL EDITION- ISBN: 9781305645059. Available at the UTEP Bookstore

Course Learning Outcomes

Upon successful completion of this course students will be able to:

1. use artistic terminology and concepts as they apply to works of art.
2. evaluate the role of the artist and the role of art within societal and historical contexts.
3. categorically distinguish works of art within a historical or stylistic framework.
4. describe, analyze, and compare works of art through written responses.

Course Prerequisites: There are no prerequisites for this course.

Technical Requirements

Some course content is delivered via the Internet through the Blackboard learning management system (LMS). Ensure your UTEP e-mail account is working and that you have access to the Web and a stable web browser. Mozilla Firefox and Google Chrome are the most supported browsers for Blackboard; other browsers may cause complications with the LMS. When having technical difficulties, update your browser, clear your cache, or try switching to another browser.

Make sure you have the following:

- UTEP email account
- Access to a PC or Mac computer with a strong, stable internet connection (the main UTEP Library on Wiggins Way has computers available on the 2nd floor)
- Firefox and Chrome browsers
- Microsoft Word-for the written assignment

If you encounter technical difficulties beyond your scope of troubleshooting, please contact the Help Desk as they are trained specifically in assisting with technological needs of students.

For technology support: TS.UTEP.EDU | or call 915-747-4357 (HELP)

Blackboard Learn

Please make sure you can access your Art History II Blackboard link from the my.utep.edu page (click on the orange button and sign in). Knowledge of Blackboard is a requirement for this class. Some course work will be completed in Blackboard. Powerpoint lectures, exams, quizzes, announcements, instructional videos, web links to art sites, the class schedule, assignment links as well as grades will be posted there. You must have access to a strong internet connection either at home or school (the UTEP library computer lab on the 2nd floor is open). A strong Internet connection is especially important when taking exams and quizzes.

NOTE: Technical glitches (such as your browser shutting down before the allotted time for an exam has expired) do occur; Blackboard is far from perfect. If your browser closes, reopen it immediately and reenter the exam. If something odd happens---maybe Blackboard will not let you begin an exam and says you have taken it, but you haven't--- you should email me at my UTEP email address, which is: aperry@utep.edu.

Face To Face Lectures and Blackboard Modules- Navigating Your Course

Course content is delivered in lectures and is available for review in Blackboard modules. We have three modules, which correspond to major units of study for specific time periods and art styles and movements. Aside from required reading in your text, all of the material that you will need to read or view, including Powerpoint lectures, the list of the specific works you are required to know for each module, PDFs, online articles, videos, etc., will be available and accessible in each module, as will the writing assignment. Whenever you open our course in Blackboard you will always land on the Course Content page with the modules at your fingertips. Each module is arranged by weeks and lists all tasks that will be completed in each of those weeks. Exams and quizzes will be available on specific days between midnight and 11:59 pm, and you will access them in the corresponding module on those specific days.

Each module begins with a link to a list of works that you are required to know for that module. You must be able to identify each work listed by artist's name (in bold face), title of the work, and style or movement, as well as location, if underlined. Learn all terms. You must be able to answer very specific questions about each work based upon lecture content, videos and assigned reading in your text. Study these required works diligently!

Course Requirements

EXAMS: There will be three exams given in this course, one at the end of each learning module. All exams will include questions that require the student to refer to an image or pair of images, as well as questions that do not refer to visuals. Tests may include image identifications (by artist, title of the work and style or movement), multiple choice, true/false, fill in the blank or matching type questions about lecture content. Dates for the first two exams appear in the following course calendar. The third module exam for this course will be given during our scheduled final exam day, Wednesday, May 8th. Exams will be available between midnight and 11:59 pm on their specific dates only. These are closed book exams. You may not use any type of study materials while you are taking each test. You may not communicate with anyone during the time you are working on the exam. Each of you is personally responsible for adhering to these rules.

QUIZZES: Four quizzes will assess comprehension of lecture material, Khan Academy videos and readings in your text. All quizzes require the student to identify artworks (artist's last name, title of work, style/movement) and answer questions based upon lecture content. Quizzes will be available on specific dates from midnight until 11:59 pm and must be taken on those days. Keep in mind that quizzes do matter in this course and can make all the difference in your final grade! You should prepare diligently for quizzes, just as you would for an exam. All quizzes are closed book; you are not permitted to use any type of study material or communicate with anyone during a quiz. Each of you is personally responsible for adhering to these rules.

WRITTEN ASSIGNMENT: Students will engage the work: Christ with Symbols of the Passion, by Lavinia Fontana, executed in 1576. Then each student will write a 3-4 page paper in which they consider the work as an example of Mannerist style through comparison to the Rosso Fiorentino image, Dead Christ with Angels. Students will be required to discuss the two works based upon the following Mannerist criteria: contextual and spatial ambiguity, unnatural figural proportions in affected poses, and anxiety level or strange mood. These works provide the perfect opportunity to write a comparison, as both images depict the dead Christ with angels and symbols of the Passion and both were painted by Italian artists that chose to work in the Mannerist style.

Begin your discussion by identifying and briefly describing both of the painted images; then compare and contrast the two images in an orderly fashion. Since both paintings will exhibit similar aspects of Mannerist style, I suggest that you analyze and compare each of the Mannerist features that you observe in BOTH works, devoting a paragraph to each characteristic. To conclude your discussion you might offer your opinion as to the more Mannerist of the two works.

Your papers must be a minimum of three full pages, composed in Microsoft Word with standard 1” margins (top, bottom and sides), typed in a legible 12 pt. font, double spaced, and formatted into coherent paragraphs that are indicated by indenting the first word of the paragraph five spaces. Do not add headings or extra spacing between paragraphs. All spelling, grammar and punctuation issues must be edited out of your text, which may mean that you will need to work with tutors at the Writing Center. For assistance with your written expression please contact the Writing Center. They offer tutoring services weekdays throughout the semester.

Your discussion must be written entirely in your own words and reflect your observations about the Mannerist characteristics of both images. This paper is not intended as a research assignment, but rather as an exercise in visual, formal analysis, critical thinking and writing. I do not want you to write about either painter; and please do not write an essay about your personal spiritual beliefs. This is an essay about the ways in which two paintings of the same topic in the same style are both similar and different! Please do not consult sources other than lectures, your text and the Khan Academy video about Fiorentino’s Dead Christ with Angels. Should you elect to paraphrase or borrow thoughts, ideas or words spoken or written by another author (e.g. the author of your text book or the art historians discussing the Fiorentino image), you must cite your sources in fair exchange for such usage. Direct quotes from a published source must be enclosed in quotation marks and cited. Failure to take this step will result in a formal inquiry by the Office of Student Conduct and Conflict Resolution, which could result in severe penalties and possibly academic probation. For tips on avoiding plagiarism, see: <https://www.utep.edu/student-affairs/osccr/Files/docs/Avoiding-Plagiarism.pdf>. Lecture content is not published material and does not need to be cited in your essay. DUE DATE: Monday, April 1.

GRADING: Final grades for this course will be based on the results of three examinations, four quizzes, and your 3-4-page written assignment. Your grade will be calculated on the following basis:

Three Exams	60% (20% each)
Four Quizzes	20% (5% each)
Written assignment	20%

Grading Standards and Criteria: All grades are calculated using percentages and converted into letter grades according to the following scale:

- 90% and above = A- excellent work
- 80% and below 90% = B- above average work
- 70% and below 80% = C- average work

below 70% = NOT PASSING (This is a core course; you must earn a final grade of 70 to pass)

PASS STUDY SESSIONS: Peers Assisting Student Success is a free tutoring program that consists of student led review sessions for historically difficult courses. The weekly review sessions are led by a student who has previously led sessions and is working closely with the professor to help provide individualized academic support to students. Your peer leader for this course is Daphne Gonzalez. Daphne will guide you through fun games and exercises that will improve your note taking and study skills as you review the lecture material, resulting in better exam grades and deeper comprehension of the subject matter. All students are required to participate in two study sessions before each exam.

NOTE: Daphne is not a teaching assistant; therefore, she cannot extend deadlines, inform you of your grades, give you extra credit or provide you with lecture notes. To contact her about attending online PASS sessions email Daphne at: dgonzalez69@miners.utep.edu.

Course Policies

ATTENDANCE AT LECTURES: Students are expected to attend all class meetings unless ill or in the midst of a personal or family emergency. I will take attendance before most lectures. More than four unexcused absences may result in your being dropped from the class.

At the time of this writing Covid-19 is still with us. If you test positive for COVID-19 or have any other serious communicable illness such as the flu, please do not come to class until you are better. Be sure to contact me at aperry@utep.edu to inform me of your situation.

COMMUNICATION: There are a couple of ways to email me: through Blackboard course messages, which you access in the Course Menu, or through my regular UTEP email account at: aperry@utep.edu. Be sure to use your UTEP email account when you contact me. I try to respond to emails immediately, but will most assuredly get back to you within a day's time. I will often communicate with the class through the Announcement tool on Blackboard, so you should check there frequently for updates and reminders. You will receive an email notification when I post an announcement; otherwise, you can access announcements in the course menu.

STUDENT RESPONSIBILITIES: You are expected to check Blackboard frequently and to keep up with class work. You must take quizzes and exams during the window of time in which they are open, unless there is some sort of serious emergency (not a conflict that you schedule) that makes it impossible, and that can be documented with a note from an appropriate professional. It is also your responsibility to turn in your paper on time. If you miss a deadline due to serious circumstances beyond your control, communicate with me immediately, so that we may determine the best course of action to take to get you back on track.

LATE ASSIGNMENTS/MISSED ASSIGNMENTS: Students who miss a major assignment, such as an exam, or fail to turn in the paper on the due date, and do not contact me within 7 days may be dropped from the course.

TO DROP THIS COURSE: Please contact the Registrar's Office to initiate the drop process. If you cannot complete this course for whatever reason, please contact me. If you do not, you are at risk of receiving an F for the course.

INCOMPLETES: will be considered for students completing satisfactory or better work and having serious legitimate situations beyond their control requiring additional time to complete the course requirements. All "I" grades are assigned at the discretion of the instructor and with the approval of the Department chair.

PASS/FAIL: The pass/fail option is not available for this course.

ACADEMIC DISHONESTY: You will be writing a paper for this course so it is important for you to understand plagiarism. Plagiarism is the use of the ideas, information, or words of another author or fellow student without giving proper credit to your source. You are responsible for citing your sources as indicated by the instructor and, in cases where you directly quote from a source, for enclosing those words that are not your own in quotation marks. Failing to give proper credit to your sources in these ways is academic dishonesty. You are also responsible for adhering to the instructor's rules on exams; failure to do so is considered to be scholastic dishonesty. All suspected incidences of academic dishonesty will be referred to the office of Student Conduct and Conflict Resolution for investigation. See UTEP policy on this issue at <http://sa.utep.edu/osccr/academic-integrity/>. For some tips on avoiding plagiarism, see: <https://www.utep.edu/student-affairs/osccr/Files/docs/Avoiding-Plagiarism.pdf>. Some of your course work and assessments may be submitted to SafeAssign, a plagiarism detecting software. SafeAssign is used to review assignment submissions for originality and will help you learn how to properly attribute sources rather than paraphrase.

Use of AI technologies or automated tools, particularly generative AI such as ChatGPT or DALL-E, is not allowed for assignments in this class. Each student is expected to use critical and creative thinking skills to complete tasks and not rely on computer-generated ideas. Any direct use of AI-generated materials submitted as your own work will be treated as plagiarism and reported to the Office of Student Conduct and Conflict Resolution (OSCCR).

STUDENTS WITH DISABILITIES: If you have a disability and need class accommodations, please contact the Center for Accommodations and Support Services (CASS) through their online AIM PORTAL. CASS staff are the only individuals who can validate and, if need be, authorize accommodations for students with disabilities. They also hire notetakers for classes.

The University is committed to providing reasonable accommodations and auxiliary services to students, staff, faculty, job applicants, applicants for admissions, and other beneficiaries of University programs, services and activities with documented disabilities in order to provide them with equal opportunities to participate in programs, services, and activities in compliance with sections 503 and 504 of the Rehabilitation Act of 1973, as amended, and the Americans with Disabilities Act (ADA) of 1990 and the Americans with Disabilities Act Amendments Act (ADAAA) of 2008. Students who become pregnant or have parenting responsibilities may also request reasonable accommodations. Reasonable accommodations will be made unless it is determined that doing so would cause undue hardship on the University. The UTEP Center for Accommodations and Support Services (CASS) will process requests for accommodations based on a disability, pregnancy, or parenting. Contact the Center for Accommodations and Support Services at 915-747-5148, email them at cass@utep.edu, or apply for accommodations online via the CASS portal.

CAMPUS RESOURCES AND ASSISTANCE: UTEP provides a variety of student services and support. Please refer to the QR code below for a listing of campus resources and assistance.
