

National Science Foundation – Research Experience for Undergraduates

REU Border Communities Program

New Mexico State University (NMSU) and University of Texas-El Paso (UTEP)

Las Cruces, New Mexico and El Paso, Texas, May 21 - July 29, 2018

Application Form

Please fill out the form below and the following documents and information. Please send all materials to reuborder@nmsu.edu by March 1, 2018.

1. Current resume
2. Unofficial transcripts from your university or community college
3. Letter of interest: tell us why you would like to participate in this REU program and the skills or experience that you have in the topic area
4. Two letters of reference emailed separately, one of which must be from a student's professor.

Personal Information

First name

Middle Name

Last name

Permanent Email Address

Your permanent email address will be used to identify you for all the future communications

Current address

Street

City

State

Zip Code

Permanent Phone Number

Citizenship

I am:

A US citizen _____

Permanent Resident of the United States _____

If admitted to the program, will you be willing to provide proof your US citizenship or Permanent Resident Status?

Yes _____

No _____

General interest

Initial Interest in the Border Communities REU Program

How did you hear about this program?

University or College Website

National Science Foundation Website

Faculty mentors from my current university or college

Recruiting ad

Other

Academics

Current education classification

Freshman _____

Sophomore _____

Junior _____

Senior _____

Other _____

Current Major _____

Current Minor (if applicable) _____

Overall GPA _____

Total number of credit hours earned to date _____

Expected graduation date (month/year) _____

The College or University you currently attend _____

List all social science classes that you have taken:

Experience

List any experience in working with immigrant communities in the US-Mexico border region or elsewhere (please expand in your letter of interest)

If selected for this REU program, would you consider continuing your research during the academic year?

Yes _____

No _____

Are you considering attending graduate school?

Yes _____

No _____

If yes, please state which major you are considering for graduate study:

Language skills

Please describe your level of proficiency in Spanish and English