Remembering Lalo: Abelardo Delgado, Chicano Activist and Poet

The C.L. Sonnichsen Special Collections Department of the UTEP Library created an exhibit about celebrated Chicano writer and activist Abelardo “Lalo” Delgado. The exhibit includes photographs, clippings, and some of his famous literary works, including Stupid America. Located on the second (main) floor of the UTEP Library, this exhibit will be on display until Summer 2019.