

A. PERSONAL INFORMATION

Full Name: Luis Armando Arias 500 West University Ave. El Paso, TX 79968 Education Bldg. Room 111, larias2@utep.edu; 915.747.5532;

B. EDUCATION

Year: 1981 Degree: Doctorate Major: Law
Granting Institution: Thomas Jefferson School of Law/College of Law of San Diego, CA
Year: 1977 Degree: Bachelor's Major: Political Science
Granting Institution: University of Texas at El Paso, TX

Additional Educational Training and Specialty Training

Name: Collaborative On Line Learning Workshop PIC US-Mexico	Date: May 13, 2022	Duration: Completed
Name: Hy-Flex Academy	Date: April 10, 2022	Duration Completed
Name: Hy-Flex Course Design Workshop	Date: October 24, 2021	Duration: Completed
Name: Exemplary Course Program (ECP)	Date: April 10, 2022	Duration: completed
Interaction/Collaboration/Assessment Design	Date: March 26, 31,2021	Duration: completed
Name: Exemplary Course Program (ECP) Learner Support Webinar	Date: April 1, 2021	Duration: completed
Name: Teaching On-Line Academy	Date: May 30, 2020	Duration: completed
Name: Association of College and University Educators (ACUE)	Date: August 23, 2019	Duration: 3 hours
Name: Cengage Active Learning/Teaching/Techniques	Date: February 13, 2019	Duration: 1 hour
Name: Advanced Power Points	Date: January 15, 2019
Name: Technology in the Classroom	Date: January 15, 2019
Understanding Generations, El Paso Community College (EPCC)	Date: August 22, 2018
Name: University of Texas at El Paso (UTEP) Instructor Retreat	Date: August 21, 2018	Duration: 5 hours
Name: Polar Bears: Breaking Ice Strategies & Techniques	Date: August 9, 2018	Duration: 1 hour
Name: Intelligence in Non-English-Speaking World	Date: July 19, 2018	Duration: 7 hours
Name: Culture, Caring and Classroom	Date: July 12, 2018	Duration: 7 hours
Name: Top Hat	Date: July 9, 2018	Duration: 1 hour
Name: Women in Intelligence Seminar	Date: April 26, 2018	Duration: 2 hours
Name: iClicker	Date: January 10, 2018	Duration: 1 hour
Name: Increasing Student Motivation
Name: Interdisciplinary Approach to Teaching Critical Thinking
Date: January 9, 2018
Name: FBI Instructor Development Course Graduate/Certified
Date: 1999-2012 Duration 40 hours

C. CURRENT POSITION(S)

Position Title: Lecturer in the Department of Criminal Justice at UTEP 09/01/2020 to present; Mentor to several undergraduate and graduate students.

Position Title: Adjunct Faculty Member from 2011 - 2020 - Lecturer in the Department of Criminal Justice at UTEP; Mentor to several undergraduate students.

Position Title: Adjunct or Part-Time Faculty Member – Lecturer in the Criminal Justice Discipline at El Paso Community College, Mission del Paso Campus

D. EMPLOYMENT HISTORY AND EXPERIENCE

September 1, 2020, to Present Department of Criminal Justice - UTEP El Paso, TX

Position Title: Full-time Lecturer/Adjunct Faculty since 2011- 2020

Relevant Skills: Appointed full-time CJ Lecturer on 09/01/2020 at UTEP. Refer to Description of Current Project as Lecturer at UTEP for courses taught, see infra. Previously, adjunct faculty teaching both small and large classes of criminal justice students in a university comprised of approximately 80% Hispanic, which reflects the 840,410 population of the Paso del Norte region. As an adjunct faculty member at UTEP. I was an active contributor to the UTEP Criminal Justice Library Guide, and I have personally formalized a Criminal Justice Mentor/Mentee program employed by this adjunct faculty member and his students. Further, with the help of UTEP Academic Technology Department, I implemented videos to enhance case studies presented and discussed in class. As an adjunct faculty member, I possess wide-ranging experience to teach face-to-face courses and have the willingness to teach on-line courses. As adjunct faculty, I possess experience with Blackboard instructional technology. Further, pursuant to my professional work experience, see infra, I possess and have demonstrated experience working in and/or with the criminal justice agencies in the El Paso/Southern New Mexico region, to-wit: class presentations by Assistant US Attorney's Office, Western District of Texas; US Customs and Border Protection agents; US Border Patrol agents; Dallas/Fort Worth International Police Department; 34th Judicial District Attorney's Office; El Paso County Criminal Court #2; the El Paso County Juvenile Probation Department; New Mexico State University Police, the FBI/El Paso Division; the FBI/Albuquerque Division- Las Cruces Resident agency and both the High Intensity Drug Trafficking Area (HIDTA) in El Paso and Las Cruces.

Description of Current Project as Lecturer at UTEP: Currently teaching the following undergraduate classes in the Department of Criminal Justice at UTEP:

- Fundamentals of Criminal Law CRIJ 1310
- Crime, Criminal Justice, and Film CRIJ 4303
- Immigration Law and Administration CRIJ 4311
- Criminal Procedure CRIJ 4312 (two section; all beginning Fall 2020)

I have also taught the following Criminal Justice and non- Criminal Justice classes:

- Correctional Systems and Practices CRIJ 2313
- Community-Based Corrections and Correctional Counseling CRIJ 3309
- Fundamentals of Criminal Law CRIJ 1310
- Crime, Criminal Justice, and Film CRIJ 4303
- Court Systems and Practices CRIJ 1306
- Open Source, Search Engines, and the Internet: The War on Drugs; Graduate Intelligence Program/Intelligence Center for Academic Excellence at UTEP.
- State and Federal Government in the Department of Government at UTEP

January 1984 to Present

Position Title: Part-Time Faculty

Department of Criminal Justice and Department of Political Science - EPCC
El Paso, TX

Relevant Skills: Adjunct faculty teaching small to large classes of no more than 40 students of criminal justice students in a local college comprised of approximately 80% Hispanic, which reflects the population of the Paso del Norte region. As an adjunct faculty member at EPCC, I am cognizant of and committed to advancing higher education in the region and partner with the local university (UTEP) to push toward the state's goal for 60 percent of Texans aged 25 – 34 to earn a degree or certificate by the year 2030. I was the originator, with the assistance from an EPCC librarian, to create and build the EPCC Criminal Justice/Luis A. Arias/Library Guide comprised of the following tabs: Reserve books, Readings, Reference Books, Print Books, eBooks, Articles/Databases; CJ databases; Open Access; Capital Punishment; Court Cases; Legal Information; CJ Websites; Text Websites; Career Information; El Paso Education Statistics; Student and Teaching Aids; YouTube Videos; Events; and, APA Citation Style. As an adjunct faculty member, I possess experience to teach face-to-face courses.

Description of Current Project: Currently teaching the following undergraduate classes in the Department of Criminal Justice at EPCC:

- Introduction to Criminal Justice CRIJ 1301
- Police Systems and Practices CRIJ 2328

I have also taught the following classes:

- Correctional Systems and Practices CRIJ 2313
- Court Systems and Practices CRIJ 1306
- State and Federal Government in the Department of Government at EPCC

June 22, 1997, to February 6, 2016

Position Title: Supervisory/Intelligence Analyst

Department of Justice- Federal Bureau of Investigation
El Paso Division, El Paso, TX; Albuquerque Division, Las Cruces, NM

Relevant Skills: Embedded herein evidencing professional work and academia experience in the field of law enforcement and the criminal justice process.

Description of Project: During the period of August 28, 2012 – February 6, 2016: assigned to support the Criminal and National Security and Domestic Terrorism programs at Albuquerque Division/Las Cruces Resident Agency. Previously assigned to support the Domestic Terrorism (DT) and Weapons of Mass Destruction (WMD) programs.

Description of Project: During the period of January 2011 – August 28, 2012: Intelligence Analyst assigned to the FBI Directorate of Intelligence Southwest Regional Intelligence Group (SWRIG) located in the El Paso Division. Provide strategic analytical support to eight SWRIG FBI field offices including the following: Los Angeles, San Diego, Phoenix, Albuquerque, El Paso, Dallas, Houston, and San Antonio. Support these field offices in their efforts to identify cross-programmatic threats and enhance collection opportunities and develop an understanding of how these threats impact the region. Produced analytically rigorous products called Alerts.

Description of Project: During the period of January 1999 – August 28, 2012

Description of Project: Supervisory Intelligence Analyst (SIA) overseeing El Paso Division's (EPD) Central Strategic Coordinating Component (CSCC) comprised of the following analytical personnel: Domain Management Coordinator, Collection Management Coordinator, and Chief Reports Officer. And Supervisory Intelligence Analyst (SIA) of El Paso Division's (EPD) Field Intelligence Group comprised of Intelligence Analysts and Contract Analyst.

Description of Project: During the period of June 17, 1997, to January 1999. Intelligence Research Specialist assigned to the El Paso Division supporting the Criminal Program and criminal violations.

January 1982 to June 6, 1997
Position Title:
Supervisory/Probation Officer

West Texas Community Supervision and Corrections Department, formerly the Adult Probation Department, El Paso, TX

Relevant Skills: Embedded herein evidencing professional work and academia experience in the field of corrections and the criminal justice process.

Description of Project: Supervisory Probation Officer for approximately 12 years of the Eastside and Southside field offices supervising several felony and misdemeanor probation officers who supervised felony and misdemeanor offenders. Intensive Supervision Probation Officer supervising 40 high-risk felons.

E. PROFESSIONAL CERTIFICATIONS

Name: FBI Instructor Development Course Graduate/Certified
Name: FBI National Recruitment Campaign Recruiter

F. PROFESSIONAL ORGANIZATION MEMBERSHIP

FBI Intelligence Analyst Association

Revised and updated on 30 June 2022

