Hi Areli,

The course had to be cancelled last spring due to insufficient enrollment, but it is the same course (syllabus, etc.). Changing around the cross-lists is part of our response to enrollment issues.

Dear Colleagues,

I hope your semester is going well.

I have contacted individually each one of your faculty to kindly request the submission of the CEL course renewal form(s) for Spring 2024.

My goal is to continue assisting our faculty to engage students in community projects, to develop their leadership skills and enhance their learning experience.

Our deadline to present the renewal forms for Spring 2024 to the College of Liberal Arts curriculum committee (LACC) is Monday October 23, 2023. The renewal form can be found in the following link: CEL program

Should you have questions or concerns let me know, and kindly submit the form(s) to achaconsilva@utep.edu

I sincerely appreciate and recognize the time and energy you and your faculty invest in teaching *CEL* designated courses.

Finally, on behalf of the Center for Community Engagement (CCE), Dr. Montelongo, and yours truly, we want to thank you for your support reporting in the Community Engagement Survey your information on the number of courses, students, and participation hours involving academic service and community service activities.

With gratitude,
areli chacón

Hi Areli,

Yes, I approve Dr. Baca's CEL renewal form. Will this email suffice, or do you need an actual signed copy of the form?

Thank you!

Best,
Joe
