Proposal Title: Addition of New Course – CHIC 2302 – Latina/o Presence in the U.S.

The Chicano Studies Program proposes the creation of CHIC 2302 “Latina/o Presence in the U.S.” for the Core Curriculum in section IV, Language, Philosophy and Culture, in the BA degree. In addition, the course will be included in the CHIC major, the interdisciplinary, social science and humanities minors and the Liberal Arts block electives. The major goal of the course is to provide an avenue for lower-division students to learn early in their academic trajectory about the current and emerging Latino ethnicities in the U.S. The Southwest and border region is seeing an increased presence of immigrants from Central America, the Caribbean, and parts of South America. The growing presence and geographic spread of the Latina/o population in the U.S. indicates a need for its academic examination along key sociocultural dimensions. The course will strengthen the students’ knowledge base of human diversity, enable the integration of the Latina/o experience in upper division courses, and, most importantly, meet the Core Objectives of the THECB 60x30TX Academic and Quality and Workforce for the Texas Core Curriculum.

The proposed course was successfully piloted three times as a UNIV 1301 with freshmen, with an average of 25 students per class. The Entering Student Program facilitated the piloting of the course to ensure CHIC 2302 would meet the content standards of the Texas Core Curriculum and the UTEP BA degree’s Core Curriculum.

Consultation of the Units that have courses in the BA degree’s Core Curriculum, Section IV, Language, Philosophy and Culture took place. Appended are the approvals by chairs/directors of said units, minus those who did not respond.

Course Description:

An examination of Latina/o culture and society. This course examines education, labor, politics, immigration, and language to better understand how Latina/os create distinct cultures and identities in the United States.

Student Learning Goals and Objectives

In this course students will:

- Develop the critical thinking and analytical skills necessary for effective communication both orally and written.
- Identify, analyze, and articulate the central themes in Latina/o community and identity formation.
- Identify and analyze differences and similarities among Latina/o experiences over time.
- Demonstrate their understanding of the concepts of gender, sexuality, race, and class by using them to identify experiences of privilege and inequality as well as collaboration and conflict, within and between Latina/o communities.
- Use an interdisciplinary approach to connect the past to the present in an effort to better understand the world around them and themselves as global citizens.

- Students will analyze the influence of the American Industrial Revolution, eugenics, nationalism, immigration, economics, politics, and culture had (and still has) on Latina/o diaspora.
- Students will think critically about resistance and push-back against racism and segregation in the public schools from marginalized communities prior to Brown v. the Board of Education.
- Compare and contrast: assimilation, acculturation, and multiculturalism.
- Engage theoretical implications of implicit marginalization of students via the intentional withholding or outright denial in resources, people, and monies to Chicana/o and Latino Students.
- Consider the weaponization of IQ-tests and standardized testing as a means to in qualify and quantify people’s academic and economic opportunity and quality of life.
- How perceptions and perspectives about language are used to limit academic opportunity.
- Understand that marginalized communities like Chicana/o and Latina/o communities are not static and create their own agency for change.
- Critical analysis of socio-cultural barriers that isolate and disconnect communities from accessible education and related opportunities.
- As a member of society, there will be ample opportunity to see where you fit, if at all, in existing conversations regarding education, marginalization, and privilege.
- There are a few ground rules for discussions. Whether you are discussing in a group or as a class, please remember that the appeal of higher learning is that we can think and talk, maturely and responsibly, about topics like race, class, gender, and sexuality. Please make an effort to treat each other, and each other’s contributions to class discussions, with respect.
