Proposal Title: Proposal to Add 3 Leadership Studies Courses to the Liberal Arts Social and Behavioral Sciences Block Electives

This is a proposal to add three upper division Leadership Studies courses to the pool of Social and Behavioral Sciences block electives in the College of Liberal Arts. LEAD 3300: Contemporary Theories of Lead. is already part of these block electives, and with the minor in Leadership Studies approved for and active for the fall of 2021, we believe it would be a benefit for students in the college if the other three upper division courses were added to the pool of block electives. Those courses are LEAD 4350: Concepts of SJ and E Leadership; LEAD 4351: Community Engaged Leadership; and LEAD 4380: Special Topics in Leadership.
