Rationale

Due to low enrollment and retiring faculty, we are consolidating our two M.A.'s (Bilingualism and Applied Linguistics, and Spanish) into one new M.A. in Applied Linguistics and Culture with two concentrations: (1) Applied Linguistics and Bilingualism, and (2) Spanish Literacy and Culture (separate proposal under review). To be more in line with this proposed new degree, we are updating the list of fast-track approved courses for our new degree. The new list reflects the courses that are either required or electives for the new combined M.A. We selected only courses that we believe would be accessible for undergraduate students enrolled in the fast-track program.

Changes to an Existing Fast-Track Program

College: Liberal Arts

Graduate Degree: M.A. in Bilingualism and Applied Linguistics (to become M.A. in Applied Linguistics and Culture)

Undergraduate Degrees: B.A. in Linguistics and Bilingualism, B.A. in Spanish
