College : Liberal Arts Department : Criminal Justice & Security Studies
Effective Term : Fall 2026

Rationale for changing the course:

Students must complete INSS 3302 before enrolling in INSS 4366 to ensure they have the necessary foundation in intelligence concepts and analytical skills. INSS 3302 introduces core methods and frameworks that are essential for success in the advanced applications covered in INSS 4366. By requiring this prerequisite, students are better prepared to engage with complex material, apply higher-level analysis, and produce professional-quality work. This sequence strengthens learning outcomes and supports the academic rigor of the program..
