Rationale

The purpose of this memo is to request a change in the course name for LING/ENG/ANTH 2320. The course is named "Introduction to Linguistics". Although it is a core course, enrollment in this course is lower than it should be, perhaps because students do not know what "Linguistics" means. We would like to rename the course as "Introduction to Human Language," which is much more transparent. We think this name change will increase enrollment.
