

MINOR AND UNDERGRADUATE CERTIFICATE IN INTELLIGENCE AND NATIONAL SECURITY STUDIES

Curriculum Map

Knowledge

Comprehension

Analysis

- INSS 3302 - Seminar in Intelligence and National Security*

* Students will understand the fundamental concepts and issues associated with intelligence and national security.

- Selection from a wide-variety of elective INSS coursework ranging from Crime and Border Security to Counterintelligence and Security
- Choice from a range of interdisciplinary electives relevant to intelligence and national security from departments and programs across the College of Liberal Arts

- INSS 4301 - Intelligence Collection and Analysis*

* Students will appreciate the intelligence collection process and develop a foundation for intelligence analysis.

Theory and Practice

Challenges and Problems

Solutions