EDUCATOR PREPARATION PROGRAM (EPP)

Admission Process

- Student schedules an appointment with their College of Liberal Arts Department Advisor to review their degree plan requirements.

- Student visits the Secondary Teacher Education Program (STEP) to review the EPP Admissions Checklist, review any applicable testing requirements, ensure grade point average, and initiate their application folder.

- Student will begin the EPP Essay Process:
  a. Write initial EPP Essay Draft
  b. Student will have their EPP Essay Draft reviewed and provide documentation by the University Writing Center
  c. Complete and submit a final draft of their EPP Essay to the Secondary Teacher Education Program for their application folder.

- STEP will verify that all information is correct on CAPP and BANNER.

- STEP will ensure that all required documentation is in the application folder, and ready for submission.

- After submitting their EPP application, an email is sent out by the College of Education to the student to notify them that they must attend a workshop to receive admission to the EPP.

- The email provides instructions on how to register for available workshops.

- Upon admissions into the Educator Preparation Program, students will receive academic advising on all courses related to the minor in Secondary or All-Level Education by their advisor at the College of Education.
