

CAREERS IN APPLIED ANTHROPOLOGY

(1) Certificate in Applied Cultural Anthropology

* 12 required credits (4 courses) taken as part of major or minor in anthropology

* Prepares students for careers with government agencies, businesses, and community organizations working with culturally distinctive populations

→ immigrants; non-English speaking groups

→ indigenous peoples

→ social services for diverse populations

→ many other applications of concept of “culture” to business, personnel relations, etc.

(2) Certificate in Cultural Heritage Management

* 12 required credits (3-4 courses) taken as part of major or minor in anthropology

* Prepares students for careers in archeology and museums

→ many jobs are available in contract archeology in this and other regions of the U.S.

→ museum professionals, including public outreach, displays, and curation

→ cultural heritage with indigenous and immigrant communities

For more information, Contact: soci@utep.edu

Updated 3/4/10

Date: Jan 1, 2011

Expires: Dec 31, 2021

Contact: soci@utep.edu