

UTEP WOMEN AND GENDER STUDIES
WOMEN'S HISTORY MONTH
MARCH 2023

SUNDAY	MONDAY	TUESDAY	WEDNESDAY	THURSDAY	FRIDAY	SATURDAY
26	27	28	1	2	3	4
5	6	7	8	9	10	11
12	13	14	15	16	17	18
19	20	21	22	23	24	25
26	27	28	29	30	31	1

GIRLS JUST WANNA HAVE FUNDAMENTAL HUMAN RIGHTS

INTERNATIONAL WOMEN'S DAY

Monday, March 6th

WHM Art Gallery Opening Reception, featuring local artists and UTEP cellist, Mia Gonzales. 6 pm, UTEP Union Art Gallery, 2nd floor Union Building. FREE

Wednesday, March 8th - International Women's Day.

Reproductive (In)justice panel featuring Dr. Ophra Leyser-Whalen (UTEP) (The New Jane Crow), Professor Naomi Fertman (UTEP), and documentary film producer/scholar, Dr. Virginia Espino (UCLA). Blumberg Auditorium, UTEP Library, 12 noon.

Wednesday, March 8th International Women's Day

Documentary film "No Mas Bebes/No More Babies" and Q & A with film producer, Dr. Virginia Espino (UCLA). 6 pm Union Cinema, UTEP Union Building 1st Floor. FREE

Thursday, March 9th

Dr. Natalia Rivas Mateos presents her book "Gender and Global Migration" at the UTEP Library Blumberg Auditorium 3-4pm.

Tuesday, March 21st

Femme Frontera Film Festival, UTEP Union Cinema, 6 pm. FREE

Thursday, March 23rd

Women's History Month student and community organization tabling. 11 am-1pm, Union Breezeway.

Tuesday, March 28th

Dr. Elizabeth Cummings Munoz presents her book "Mothercoin: The Stories of Immigrant Nannies," at 1:30 pm, UTEP Interdisciplinary Research Building, Auditorium 2.204.

Tuesday, March 28th

Lunch and Learn: "Black Female Voices and Social Movement"

Director of Women and Gender Studies Dr. Hilda Ontiveros leads a discussion, following a performance of "I Am Not an Angry Black Woman," words and music by Dr. Maria Corley Thomas, performed by UTEP music major Abeni Merriweather. Light lunch is provided.

UTEP Student Union, Room TBA

Tuesday, March 28th

Women-Empowering-Women, professional networking with UTEP and community leaders, reception, and scholarship award presentation. 6pm, UTEP Union, Tomas Rivera Conference Room.