Registration May 7—May 17, 2019
Summer Session: June 3—July 12, 2019
A Message from the Director

The dog days of summer always come early in El Paso. June and July leap into blazing temperatures. Respite comes with a waft of cool air and a refreshing draw of water. OLLI’s summer session is the perfect place to stay cool and drink in something refreshing. Think of each class as turning a page in a new book and let these dog days be fun and filled with the adventure of learning.

Become a member.
Curious minds gather here.

The Osher Lifelong Learning Institute (OLLI) at UTEP brings the excitement and stimulation of college learning to adults, 50 years or older, to enhance the enjoyment, meaning and direction of their lives, and to contribute to their health and well-being. OLLI seeks to connect its members to the brightest minds and ideas, including emeritus and current faculty from UTEP, other colleges and professionals from the community. OLLI members share knowledge, spark ideas, forge new friendships, and inspire new thinking.

Come for the intellectual stimulation; stay for the people.

♦ The OLLI experience allows members to be part of the UTEP campus experience.
♦ Choose from up to ten courses per week, most from 1:30 pm to 4:45 pm.
♦ Most classes are 90 minutes long, once a week for six weeks.
♦ Science, music, art, history, politics, exercise, language, literature, health, and more.
♦ Pay one registration fee per semester, not per class.
♦ Experience the benefits of OLLI at UTEP as part of a national network of Osher Lifelong Learning Institutes funded by the Bernard Osher Foundation.

More benefits with OLLI:

♦ Parking options
♦ Discounts at UTEP arts and music events
♦ UTEP library privileges
♦ Bi-monthly newsletter
♦ OLLI lounge
♦ Special interest groups
♦ Lunches and social gatherings
♦ Lending library

YARN TIME
Fridays 1:30PM—3:30PM
Relax in the OLLI Lounge. Bring your yarns—knit, crochet, crewel work. Share a few tales.
1:30 PM
Fight at Otero Mesa
BILL KEY
The renowned El Paso Historian, Leon Metz, described John Prather and his remarkable stand best, “Rancher John Prather did what Indian, Mexican Bandits, and two European wars could never do. He forced the U.S. Army to back down without firing a shot.” Come learn about this remarkable grassland just off Montana and some of its incredible history.

1:30 PM
Metal Embossing/ Repujado
ROMY SAENZ HAWKINS
Metal embossing, also known as repujado in Spanish or repousse in French, is an ancient art of manipulating soft metal as aluminum, copper, pewter or brass entirely by hand using special tools creating unique works of art. New students learns the basics techniques in this art and a beginner kit project will be available for $10 payable at the first class. Advanced students will review from intermediate to advanced level techniques.
This class is a 2 hour class. Minimum of 12 students and maximum of 25 students.

1:30 PM
Myths and Their Persistent Appeal
CESAR R RIVERA PHD
The academic study of myth offers rewarding experiences to those interested in various disciplines, including comparative religion, literature, anthropology, philosophy, law, and linguistics, as well as lay people intrigued by the cultural significance of these traditional tales. This course will survey several kinds of myths from different cultures (e.g., cosmogonic, heroic, afterlife, apocalyptic), their functions (e.g. etiological, moral, social), and interpretive approaches (e.g., theological, allegorical, psychoanalytic, feminist, structuralism).

3:15 PM
True or False?
NATALIA SAVCHENKO
This course is based on discussions and discoveries, funny games and puzzles. What do the people on planet Earth think about each other and what do they know about themselves? Stereotypes often hide the truth and do not give the opportunity to expand horizons, to become richer in knowledge and cultural experiences. In class, participants will not only learn new things, but also will communicate with representatives of different countries and nations, try national dishes, and listen to the music of the world.

3:15 PM
Civil Rights: The African American Experience
TEDDY WILLIAMS
This course will be an overview of the Civil Rights movement through video, poems, literature, music, personal experiences, and personal visits to several African American/Civil Rights museums throughout the country. Healing current racial strife requires an understanding of its history.

3:15 PM
Healthy Cooking
JACQUELINE CORDOVA
Learn to prepare easy, delicious and well-balanced meals to improve your diet. Learn what foods to eat more to improve health, based on research. Extra fee: $20.00. This class will be held on location at the GREEN INGREDIENT - EXPRESS. 6100 Dew Dr., West El Paso 79912.
1:30 PM Armchair Traveler

Four of your Olli colleagues will regale you with tales of their travels and adventures. Come and hear "European Adventures"; "A Taste of Brasil"; "Walking the Camino de Santiago"; and "Paris to the Past".

4 weeks. Classes will be on June 4, June 11, June 18 and July 2.

1:30 PM El Paso/ Juarez History - Railroads to the Chamizal Settlement!

This course will cover the growth of El Paso since 1849 and deal with events effecting west Texas, southern New Mexico and northern Chihuahua as well as key historical personalities in the time period of 1891-1965. Attendance in the first session might be helpful but not required.

1:30 PM Color Pencil Techniques for Adult Coloring Books

In this class, you will learn color pencil techniques that will make your book pages more appealing, as well as color combinations that can help to make the image more dimensional. Bring your favorite coloring book.

1:30 PM Water Resources Sustainability in the Desert

This class will provide an introduction and overview of the main water challenges societies in arid regions are facing in the wake of climate change and an ever-growing demand from population in both rural and urban sectors. We will review the interrelations between the water cycle, the ecosystems in arid regions and the impact of urban centers and agricultural activities on the scarce water resources of arid areas. We will discuss the most important aspects affecting the availability of water and the security of this vital resource for the near future in our El Paso-Juarez binational region.

3:15 PM History of Women Artists

Women produced the paintings in prehistoric caves 25,000 years ago! Says who?? Say recent studies by noted archaeologists and anthropologists! One of the hottest topics in art history of the last fifty years is women artists! This class will begin with prehistoric art and art of ancient Mesopotamia, Egypt, Greece, Rome and China—looking at the art produced by women! We will cover the Middle Ages through to the present day—again looking at the art produced by women. And we will cover women artists throughout the world, not just North America and Europe! Join us for an enlightening experience and art you may never have seen before this class!

3:15 PM Exploring Inner Illumination with Meditation on Twin Hearts

Experience the energy of positive life transformation. The techniques developed by Grandmaster Choa Kok Sui work on all levels of ourselves to promote physical and mental good health as well as inner illumination. In this class, we will explore the variations of the powerful Meditation on Twin Hearts, the energetic laws of reciprocity, and the value of receptivity in our lives.

3:15 PM Soul of Darkness

Do you really know your neighbors? We will look at a number of regular people who one day the world came to know as agents of evil. We will study their lives, and their deeds. We will then attempt to look into their minds and search for their motives.
Wednesday

1:30 PM   Hitchcock- The Man Who Knew Too Much - Take One
LEANNE VON MITTENWALD

Hitchcock himself made this film twice. We will watch and discuss this 1934 version.
Two weeks, June 5 and June 12.

1:30 PM   Hitchcock- The Man Who Knew Too Much - A Do Over
LEANNE VON MITTENWALD

Hitchcock got himself a ‘Do Over’ and re-made this movie. We will enjoy this 1956 version.
Which version will be your favorite?
Two weeks, July 3 and July 10.

1:30 PM   Drawing Is Learning to Draw Portraits
CHRISTIAN GERSTHEIMER

This class will encourage students to explore the many possibilities in portraiture. Starting with drawing individual features and moving on to facial and full-figure self-portraits, each student will experiment with drawing from observation and the imagination. Students will become better at portraiture by drawing each other, and by using line, shape, shading and a variety of media including graphite, charcoal, pastels and watercolor.

1:30 PM   William Faulkner: An Introduction- Five of the Greatest Short Stories In English
JAMES MORTIMORE

Many critics would declare William Faulkner our greatest American author, yet many readers have found Faulkner intimidatingly difficult, and a large number of otherwise intelligent lovers of literature have never read him. This six-lecture course is an attempt to introduce Faulkner to readers by means of a few of his short stories which stand as some of the best in our language, with the hope that this introduction may open the door later to readings of his more difficult masterpieces in the art of fiction. The five easy-to-read short stories introduced are: "A Rose for Emily", "Barn Burning", "Red Leaves", "That Evening Sun", "An Odor of Verbena". Also, a brief biographical lecture will look at his life and times as, Raymond Queneau, the French translator of an early novel. He declared in 1948, "Of all the American writers, Faulkner is the one who seems the most mysterious".

1:30 PM   The Tai Ji Chi Gung
STEVE BAROWSKY

The Tai Ji Chi Gung is a series of 16 linked movements. These movements use the techniques of longevity breathing. They are designed to train people in the core principles of Tai Chi making it more accessible than the complex movements of Tai Chi forms. It has great effects on balance, leg strength, circulation, stress reduction and whole body mind coordination. This class is perfect for beginners as well as Tai Chi and Chi Gung practitioners who want to learn the deeper principle of their arts.

3:15 PM   Beginners' Folk Guitar
ROBERT K JACOBS

Continuation of the beginners' introduction to folk guitar. This class will continue to introduce techniques and new songs to build upon the skills the participants have started to acquire, and develop the ability to perform as a group and individually.

3:15 PM   Feeding the Region- The Need for El Paso's Food Bank?
SUSAN GOODELL, TERRI WYATT

There are many misconceptions about hunger in the United States and here in El Paso. This six week class will allow participants to learn about the importance of having a food bank in our community. The class will give an overview of what the Food Bank is, who the Food Bank impacts, and how the Food Bank needs to grow in order to meet the needs of food insecure individuals living in El Paso, Hudspeth, and Culberson Counties.

Page 5
Wednesday Begins: 6/5/2019

3:15 PM More Behind The Curtain
HECTOR SERRANO

This class will focus on dance, musical theater, opera, and music. Find out more about what goes on behind the scenes of ballets, operas, musicals, and concerts. Meet the scenic, lighting, costume, and sound designers, technicians, producers who collaborate to make the "magic" you see onstage. There will be lectures about the different types of creative and technical skills required to put on a live production, and an introduction to the professionals who work behind the curtain. Whenever possible, invitations will be arranged for class members to attend rehearsals and/or performances of local productions (at a discounted price).

3:15 PM The End of World War I
EVERETT T DAGUE

This class looks at how World War I ended and the peace process that followed. There are two major themes - 1) the tactical/strategic end or, did the German Army lose the war? (Yes. Yes, they did.) The second major theme, myths and reality of peacemaking, or what actually was the plan of Versailles, and why it failed. What were the consequences of that failure? 4 weeks starting June 19.

Thursday Begins: 6/6/2019

1:30 PM Texas, The Law and You
ALVINO HERNANDEZ

This class provides easy to understand information about law in Texas. It will look at the difference between civil and criminal law, the source of criminal law in Texas, the "Castle Doctrine" and force issues, the difference between a felony and misdemeanor crime and understanding the Bill of Rights in everyday encounters with government in situations like traffic tickets and filing charges. It is not for lawyers and legal professionals but citizens who should and need to know what the law is about.

1:30 PM Race in Shakespeare- A Class Examination of the Play Othello
JAY STRATTON

We will take an in depth look at the play Othello and discuss race and racism in Shakespeare. What did it mean in Shakespeare's time and what does it mean today? Each week we will read and discuss one Act of Shakespeare's Othello!

1:30 PM A Mind-Body Approach to Nutrition
GARIMA MATHUR

This course will explore all aspects of eating, from physiological to psychological to emotional reasons of why we eat and how we eat. You will gain a better understanding of how to connect your mind and body to nourish your whole being rather than seeing food as a source of conflict and confusion. This course will transform your relationship to food and allow you to see how and what you eat is here to teach you about your relationship to life.

1:30 PM Chihuahuan Desert Ecology and Natural History
PAUL HYDER PHD

This class will explore the flora and fauna of the northern Chihuahuan desert as well as a bit of the "how and why" of deserts. Five weeks starting June 13.
Thursday

3:15 PM  Progetto Italiano
SILVIA PORTILLO KOCH
Progetto Italiano is a modern Italian multimedia course. This class format, style and material is specifically for adults and teens that have little- to-no prior experience with the language. This elementary advanced class is a continuation for those who have previously taken the course. Tutti sono i benvenuti!

3:15 PM  The World of Opera
KELLIE RUMBA RATTAY
This course will deepen one’s understanding of opera and how it may relate to society; to introduce new ideas about opera; and to discuss opera. One opera will be the focal point of each class, thus exploring six operas over the span of the six-week course. Each class will consist of opera listening, score study, composer and librettist study, along with discussion upon genre, style, history, cultural significance, voice types, important performers, key terms, and other artistic themes.

3:15 PM  Calamity Jane, Molly Brown and Gypsy Rose Lee
CATHERINE DICKASON
Learn the stories of the historic risk takers who defied convention, beat the odds and determined the course of U.S. events! We will then view them in some of Tinseltown’s great depictions in classic colorful musicals! Come and enjoy watching “Calamity Jane”, “The Unsinkable Molly Brown”, and “Gypsy”! Be prepared to sing along (and maybe even dance!)

3:15 PM  Great Thinkers of Western Philosophy
RUBY MONTANA
This Course will look at some of the most significant philosophers in the Western tradition. We will begin with the ancient Greeks and conclude in modern times, going over some of the essential theories and arguments that have shaped the Western philosophical tradition.

Friday

1:30 PM  More and All New Pop Music of the 1950’s, 60’s and 70’s
STEVE SCHILLER
Original videos of artists such as: The Beatles, The Supremes, the Everly Brothers and ABBA. Followed by sing-a-long with these recordings using lyrics projected on the screen. Bad and even awful singers welcome! One class only, July 12.

Saturday

10:00 AM  Wellness from Within
MONICA GOMEZ
This course is a six-week series for a 1.5-2 hour classes created by the Rio Grande Cancer Foundation to help participants (not necessarily cancer patients) to discover and explore their own best path to physical, mental, emotional, and spiritual healing. Peppered with mediation, stretching and writing exercises, the course has six topics:
- Boundaries: Spaces for Serenity
- The New Normal: From Desire to reality
- Self-Care: Super Heroes do it
- Creativity: Be who you are
- Stress: No Need to make a mess
- Writing: Putting Words to Work

Class held on location at the RIO GRANDE CANCER FOUNDATION. 616 N. Virginia, Suite D, El Paso 79902. Free Parking.

AN IMPORTANT WORD ABOUT PARKING!

For OLLI Students who attended sessions in Fall 2018 and Spring 2019, your parking hangers or dash permits are good through August 15, 2019.

New students have a choice: 1) Park free of charge in remote lot SB7 on Sun Bowl Drive. There is a shuttle that will take you directly to Miners Hall, where OLLI has its offices and holds most classes. You will receive a permit to put on your dashboard that identifies you as an OLLI student; 2) You may choose to purchase a permit to park in the Sun Bowl Parking Garage (SBG). The SBG is located near Miners Hall. To purchase an SBG permit, you must fill out a parking request form at registration time. For summer newcomers, SBG permit costs will be prorated. Drivers are responsible for keeping permits visible on the dashboard or they may be cited. OLLI will not be responsible for parking citations.

Get ready for Fall 2019!

PREPARE TO PARK NOW!

The Summer Session curriculum is fantastic with Fall Session proposals just as interesting and exciting. The Sun Bowl Parking Garage fee is $250 in the upcoming UTEP year. Free parking and shuttle service will be available for outlying parking lots.

Important!

Renew your parking passes in this Summer Registration Session.

This helps OLLI and the Parking Administration determine OLLI’s parking needs and assists us in working toward alternatives. If you choose to park in the Sun Bowl Parking Garage (SBG), consider ride shares, car pooling. Classes that are offered off-campus during this Summer Session will have free parking.
