Dear

As a full-time employee who maintains a permanent abode in the United States throughout your employment at UTEP and being that you are not a national of a country to which exports are prohibited pursuant to 22 CFR 126.1, you are eligible to receive disclosures of unclassified technical data in the United States.

You may not transfer technical data (deemed export control restricted) to other foreign persons without prior approval of the United States Directorate of Defense Trade Controls (DDTC). Releasing export-controlled technical data without prior approval is a violation of DDTC and export control regulations.

I, _____, understand that it is unlawful to transfer (orally, Full Legal Name visually or in any other means) export-controlled technical data to other foreign persons located inside or outside the United States without prior approval of the DDTC.

I also attest that:

My permanent abode throughout my employment at UTEP is in the United States

I am a national of _____.
