Export Control & Conference Participation

I Will Be Giving a Talk at a Conference in Another Country. Are There Export Control Considerations?

Where Are You Going?

If you intend to travel to a comprehensively sanctioned country/region (e.g., Iran, Cuba, Syria, North Korea, or the Crimea region and Sevastopol, the self-proclaimed “Donetsk People’s Republic” and “Luhansk People’s Republic”), or a country with increased export restrictions (e.g., Belarus, Russia, China) contact the export control officer for assistance prior to travel.

What Are You Taking With You?

Be aware that any information and data on electronic devices can be accessed and copied without your knowledge in almost any country.

Is All the Information Published/In the Public Domain?

Public domain information is not restricted.

Is Any of the Information “Controlled” Under U.S. Export Control Regulations?

Always contact the export control officer for guidance in these situations.
