

Mathematical Sciences

Fall 2021

Colloquium Series

Dr. Behzad Djafari-Rouhani

The University of Texas at El Paso

: Online (Zoom) Meeting :

: Friday, October 22 : 3pm :

Click on this announcement to access the Zoom link

Asymptotic Behavior of Some Continuous and Discrete Evolution Systems

Abstract

In this talk, after reviewing some old results in nonlinear ergodic theory and their applications to the study of the asymptotic behavior of quasi-autonomous dissipative systems, we concentrate on first order expansive type evolution and difference equations and present some old and new results on the asymptotic behavior of the solutions, as well as periodic solutions to such systems.

This is joint work with Mohsen Rahimi Piranfar (email address: m.piranfargmail.com)

For further information, please contact Dr. Emil Schwab, eschwab@utep.edu

THE UNIVERSITY OF TEXAS AT EL PASO
COLLEGE OF SCIENCE